North Adams Couple Entertain at Luau

NORTH ADAMS—The patio and new kidney-shaped swimming pool of the Edward Witkoskys of Robinhood Circle drive was decorated with yards of fish net, shells, flowers, hurricane lamps and Hawaiian torches for their Hawaiian luau held a recent Saturday evening.

Mrs. Witkosky wore a flowered sarong and Witkosky was attired in a lava lava complete with a shark's tooth necklace as they greeted their costumed guests with orchid leis.

The Hawaiian chicken dinner was served at the edge of the pool on a long low table decorated Hawaiian style. The guests swam and danced during the entertaining evening. Included were Mr. and Mrs. Ted Melroe of Royal Oak, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holtz, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kleinfelters, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Wood, the Merritt Olsons, the Cy Seifers of Birmingham.

Flat El Rancho on Lake Charlevoix was the vacation destination of the Douglas Browns of Meadowlane drive recently. The family which include children, Penny, John and Susan, enjoyed swimming, fishing and water skiing during their stay.

The Charles Booths Jr. of W. Orchard Hill drive spent the past seven weeks vacationing at Waukegan Lake in northern Michigan with their children, Wendy and Chuck.

Chuck exchanged cottage life for camp at Camp Sherwood during the month of August.

The Maurice Dodges of Meadowlane drive spent their vacation enjoying the nights close to home this year. Their daughters, Carol and Martha, each attended Camp Sherwood girl scout camp for two weeks. Carol took up senior skills during her stay.

Houseguests visiting the Dodges last weekend were the James Malloys, relatives from Milwaukee, Wis.

Three weeks at Long Lake near Traverse City was the vacation playland of the Frederick Burges and daughters, Nancy and Barbara, of Far Hill drive recently.

The Charles Bethels of Meadowlane drive selected a cottage on Crystal Lake near Frankfort for their vacation this year. They took side trips to Sleeping Bear sand dunes and Pointe Betsy on Lake Michigan with their children, Charles, Stephen, Rebecca and Gregory.

The Lawrence Gilley family of Meadowlane drive spent a week of their vacation visiting grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gilley Sr. and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Barker of Waterloo, Iowa.

They were guests of the C. Robert Hendersons at their cottage at Au Sable, Can. for their second week.

Pam Bell of Butternut Hill drive, younger sister of Carol Bell who is busy with her last minute wedding plans in Lakeside, Calif., finds being the "stand-in" at proxy showers given in her sister's honor to be most exciting.

Three such wedding showers were given Carol last week with Pam attending each. Mrs. R. Schneider of Ferndale hosted a dinner and miscellaneous shower in Carol's honor on Sunday.

On Wednesday evening Mrs. Cecil Taylor and Mrs. Steve Dovich, both of Ferndale co-hosted an evening luncheon and linen shower.

OPENING CELEBRATION

Thursday Friday Saturday
Sept. 8 — 9 — 10

ON WOODWARD, TWO DOORS
NORTH OF THE BIRMINGHAM THEATRE

Val Blichmann

For nearly five years we at Marty's have had the pleasure of being Birmingham's foremost record store. Now we're the only one whose real business, and only business, is records. We felt that we — and our customers — needed a record store downtown. You'll find the same fine selection and the same skillful service you know at our Maple-Cranbrook location. See if you don't agree.

Val

Foregoing modesty, we believe the two stores offer the finest selection of records in the state. Every category of recorded entertainment is represented in a large but skillfully chosen stock of the best recordings available.

VALUABLE CELEBRATION PRIZES

- A COLUMBIA PORTABLE STEREO PHONOGRAPH
- $50.00 MERCHANDISE CERTIFICATE
- $25.00 MERCHANDISE CERTIFICATE
- $10.00 IN POPULAR "SINGLES."
- THREE $5.00 MERCHANDISE CERTIFICATES
- TEN LP ALBUMS

HOW TO WIN

These prizes will be awarded by public drawing at 5 p.m., Sat., Sept. 10. No need to be on hand. Winners will be notified. Tickets for the drawing will be available at EITHER MARTY'S STORE during the celebration. No purchase necessary.

— AND FREE GIFTS —

A limited number of entirely free records will be given away at both stores during the celebration.

AND BEST OF ALL . . .

Every day of the year Marty's offers their customers the spectacular money saving 66 coupon. You'll be pleased when you learn how much you save.
