2-C THE BIRMINGHAM (MICH.) ECCENTRIC Sept. 15, 1960

Central Methodist Church
Scene of Evening Ceremony

Central Methodist church in Pontiac was the scene August 27 for the marriage of Margaret Loy Bennett to Jeffrey S. Life. The ceremony was performed at 7:30 o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loy C. Bennett of Waterford township. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Ray Life of Brookfield, Wisc., formerly of Birmingham.

THE BRIDE appeared in a white Schieffele embroidery gown designed with a molded bodice and cap sleeves. A fingertip veil of pure silk illusion was caught by a crown of seed pearls and iridescent sequins. A white orchid centred the bridal bouquet of butterfly roses and feathered carnations.

Attendants wore identical dresses of white nylon sheer over net and taffeta. The scoop necklines and bodices were embroidered in an ivy motif. Matching caplets with chain veils were worn by the attendants.

MAID OF HONOR was Susan Hundley. She held a cutting basket of yellow snapdragons and white daisies. Flower colors were reversed for bridesmaids Patricia Eberhardt, Ellen Taylor and the bridegroom's sister Linda.

Richard Giles was best man and Robert Boio, William McFarlen and George Owen were ushers.

For her going away costume the bride wore a green and white check ensemble with white accessories.

accessories were white and they carried colorful bouquets.

JOSEPH Csernai, Jr., assisted his brother as best man. Other attendants were John A. Brady, Leslie Van Alstine and Robert Salenik. Cynthia Ward, flower girl, was dressed in white lace. Timothy Van Alstine was ring bearer.

Mother of the bride chose a dress in beige lace, with dark brown accessories.

GIVEN IN marriage by her father, the bride wore a princess style wedding gown of white silk taffeta fashioned with a chapel train. Pastel sequins trimmed the bodice of the dress as well as the headpiece which secured her French illusion veil. She carried a white prayer book, from which cascaded streamers of miniature sweetheart roses.

Lola Van Alstine was her sister's maid of honor. Assisting as bridesmaids were Sandra Murphy, Betty Lou Keazo and Judith Van Alstine. They wore matching dresses of avocado green lace over taffeta, designed in princess style. Their
