Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Sproule Honeymooning in Montreal

The new Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth W. Sproule left for a ten-day wedding trip to Montreal and then on to the Gray Rock Resort near Mont Tremblant in the Laurentian Mountains.

Before their marriage at 1:30 o'clock September 4, the bride was Joyce Margaret Jermak, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanislaw Jermak of Chicago. Kenneth's parents are Dr. and Mrs. K. W. Sproule of Adams road, Birmingham.

THE DOUBLE ring ceremony was witnessed at the guests John of God Church in Chicago before 250 guests.

The bride's egg shell, long sleeved, satin gown was fashioned with an empire bodice appliqued with imported lace and tiny pearls. Appliques of matching lace accented the floor length skirt which had a bustle back.

The same lace was used on the cap which secured her three-tiered elbow length veil. She carried lilacs of the valley and their fragrance centered with phalaenopsis orchids.

DRESSES of emerald green satin, bell-shaped skirts with a square neckline were worn by the six bridesmaids. They had headbands of matching green satin in a butterfly shape.

Jean Jermak, the bride's sister, was maid of honor and bridesmaids were Joanie Deskin, Irene Allen, Vera Alexandrinas, Judy Dulock and Bonita Brazes. Light green fall mums were carried by all the bridesmaids.

Richard Deskin stood as best man and seating the guests were Eugene Hawthorne, Lee Scherer, Dale Burrows, Fred Sternkopf and Grant Keefe.

Wendy Linn Mouw Marries Timothy Lyman Baldwin

Wendy Linn Mouw became the bride of Timothy Lyman Baldwin Saturday at a low nuptial mass in Holy Name church. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Msgr. Eugene Paddock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Garrett Mouw of Amberly road, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Kirk Baldwin of Harmon road, Birmingham.

THE BRIDE was gowned in white bouquet taffeta styled traditionally in floor length skirt with a poufled train trimmed in chantilly lace. Her veil was fingertip with illusion net fastened to a mid-cap trimmed with lace and pearls. She carried a small bouquet of white orchids. The bridal party included Denise Baldwin, maid of honor; bridesmaids, Susan McCombe, Lynn Griem and Gail Dettlinger.

THEY WORE madonna blue sheaths of silk organza with matching overskirts. Their hats were whimsies of the same hue, each carrying a nosegay of buds and lily. Patrick Baldwin stood as best man and ushers were Garrett Mouw, Albert Badger, Michael O'Hara and Gordon Johnson.

The bride's mother chose a blue sheath with matching accessories and the groom's mother selected a navy blue chiffon dress with a full petal hat. Each pinned a white orchid to their purse.

THE RECEPTION followed the ceremony at Forest Lake country club.

The bride chose for her going away outfit a sheer wool royal blue multi color print dress with matching accessories of royal blue. The young couple are traveling by plane for a honeymoon in New York City. They will make their home in Royal Oak.

FRANKLIN VILLAGE FASHIONS
.....would like to announce the pleasure of entertaining you, the family and your friends with the wonderful, homespun entertainment lost, but recaptured in what was, and is known as a:

PUBLIC VENDUE

A Public Vendue where you are the recipient. The recipient of fashions, ideas and a wonderful break from the every-day norm. This day you will see fashions modeled. Sports attire, afternoon and evening dresses will whirl about you in the newest fun look of Fall fashion. (courtesy of Pennypinchers and Margi Franzel)

The mannequins will be coiffured in the latest of styles, sculptured by the master hands of Gerald and Chet, Hair-stylists....all of which will be uniquely set in the atmosphere of lovely Franklin Interiors Studio green. A vast container of ideas in itself. The Hunter's Whip will also sting the individual as to "ideas for menu" for the gourmet conscious.

this day is reserved for you:
4 to 9 pm september 19th 1960, in the village of franklin. 4 to 9 pm

Franklin is the village of lore and loveliness, which has taken on a new face of taste and retained composure. Where you the shopper may be confronted with the individuality, charm and complete satisfaction of ideas and fashions, all packaged with-in an area bordered by woods and hollow.

The steam will be pressured in the machine of the vendor and the day will burst with excitement like the golden kernel of corn which will be popping like the gately of the throngs. Do plan like the gately of the throngs. Do plan to attend....refreshments and all.
