A November wedding is being planned.

MRS. JAMES L. WHITE

Karol Bell Wears Gown Of Taffeta

Gowned in white silk taffeta, Karol Louise Bell became the bride of James Leroy White September 3 at the Chapel of the Roses, Chula Vista, Calif. The Rev. John K. Sorenson performed the noon ceremony in the presence of 50 guests.

THE BRIDE'S Italian fashioned princess styled gown featured a sculptured pearl neckline and a double beaded hemline. A tulle of pearls secured her shoulder length veil of silk illusion. She carried a white prayer book covered with a spray of carnations centered with a yellow orchid. Pamela Susan Bell, sister of the bride, served as honor attendant with a yellow orchid. The bride wore a street length gown of avocado green silk organza with matching accessories. She carried a nosegay of white carnations.

BEST MAN was Joseph Barbour and ushers were Roger M. Bell and Tim Patton. The bride's mother selected a blue lace street length gown designed with a scoop neckline and full skirt. Mrs. White chose a teal blue suit gown with matching accessories. Both mothers had white carnation corsages.

A RECEPTION at the home of the groom's parents followed the ceremony.

Susan White Wears Gown of Satin Brocade

Susan Ruth White became the bride of Thomas Philip Rockwell Saturday at St. Michael's church in Brunswick. The Rev. John Graykowski performed the ceremony. Thomas is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward G. Rockwell of Birmingham.

MRS. THOMAS P. ROCKWELL

SUSAN'S GOWN was of silk satin brocade designed with an empire bodice, oval neckline and bracelet length sleeves. The bouffant skirt of unpressed pleats with buck waist folds formed a chapel train.

A bow knot of brocade secured her tiered veil of imported tulle and she carried a cascade bouquet of amaranth, white roses and trailing ivy. Ellen Vukopara was maid of honor and Mrs. James Craniko was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Thomas Van Sloten, Susan Cooper, Anne Enley and Judy Rockwell.

THEY WORE gowns of spruce green taffeta with oval necklines and short sleeves. They wore wide bows of matching taffeta in their hair. The maid and matron of honor carried lampshelter roses and pale bronze daisy mums. Other attendants carried golden bronze pom poms shaded with beige gladiolus mums.

Dr. Edward George Rockwell Jr., was his brother's best man. Ushers
