2-D THE BIRMINGHAM (MICH.) ECCENTRIC Sept. 15, 1960

Birmingham - Bloomfield Hills Society Notes

By JOYCE KLARR
MI 6-1358

St. Dunstan's guild of Cranbrook paid homage to the lovely grape at their opening reception Sunday.

The pavilion was decorated with travel posters from our most famous wine producing countries, famous vintage bottles and labels, a French flower cart, and of course, a mammoth punch bowl filled with wine.

MEMBERS and their guests entered through a grape arbor where they spotted Mr. and Mrs. Jerry McMechan, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Booth, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Field, and Mr. and Mrs. Walker Graham.

Others seen in the packed pavilion included the Richard Adams, the Walter Steckers, the Laubens, the David Lawrences, the Edgar H. Farrells, the George McCallans, the Robert Johnsons, Barbara Seaver and L. Boyne.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Patterson were there as were Mr. and Mrs. Hank Hendrick, Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Himechuck, and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Hintermeister, Mrs. Weaslaw Wright, Mrs. Jean Seader, Maureen Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hinton, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Temp Licklider, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Donegan, Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. O'Reilly, Mrs. Jasper Reid.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Williams of Oak Ridge, Tenn., on Aug. 12. He is employed by the Atomic Power Development Associates. They have two children, Katie and Jimmy.

Troth Reveals June Wedding

The engagement of Ellen Martz to Alan Maclean Shaver has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence S. Martz, of Oak Grove drive, Bloomfield Hills. Her fiancé is the son of Mrs. Leo Cass, of West Twelve Mile road, Southfield, and the late Manila G. (Bud) Shaver, formerly sports editor of The Detroit Times and sports broadcaster for Station WXYZ-Detroit.

The bride-elect graduated from Bloomfield Hills high school, and attended the University of Michigan where she was a member of Alpha Gamma Delta sorority.

The groom-to-be graduated from Cranbrook and from Dartmouth college in 1960, where he was a member of Gamma Delta Chi fraternity and served on the staff of the Dartmouth college news service; he is entering Yale Law School this month.

A June wedding is planned.

Have You Met . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Williams of Oak Ridge, Tenn., on Aug. 12. He is employed by the Atomic Power Development Associates. They have two children, Katie and Jimmy.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Reid Jr. have taken an apartment in Ann Arbor while Mr. Reid completes work on his Ph.D.

After the party, many of the guests were entertained at a dinner given by the Darrell Roberts of Bloomfield Hills.

Fishing in Canada

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Saunders have returned from a fishing trip to Canada.

The John Coppins of Bloomfield have had house guests from London for the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Winston Kellogg have returned home after spending a good part of the summer sailing in the Buzzards Bay area.

Mr. and Mrs. Fran Loud spent their vacation at Ocoee.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Reid Jr. have taken an apartment in Ann Arbor while Mr. Reid completes work on his Ph.D.

Building New Studio

The Zoltan Sepeshy of the Cranbrook art academy have been house sitting this summer. They sold their studio in Connecticut and are building a new one, to be in the interim they have been staying in the homes of vacationing friends. Plans for the new studio in New Milford, Conn. sound exciting, and if that weren't enough they will have as neighbors the Victor Borge's and the Frederick Marck's.

The William Downey's vacationed at the Pere Marquette club, where Mrs. D. tells us she didn't catch any fish but did manage to pick up a nice bit of poison ivy.

The John Kier's have just returned from their vacation at Pt. Nipigon.

Orchard Lakers Attend Derby Day

We will argue with anyone who says there is no originality in our town. Prime example was Derby Day at Orchard Lake Country club last week. Members chose team names, slogans and colors for each of the 50 foursomes entered.

Among the teams were "Adams' Apples" with Dr. Fritz Adams, C. A. Miller, Robert Wyatt and Mrs. V. B. Watkins; "Pay's Space Dogs" with A. W. Wilkinson, W. J. Herrmann, Bob Engelson and Mrs. G. F. Squibb.

"Guest What" with T. Guething, LeRoy Kiefer, N. W. Hyde and Mrs. Ferd Brock; "Clara's Braus" with Dr. C. H. Gordon, John DeBona, Richard O'Reilly and Mrs. Clara Van Winkle; "Commissary Harry" with A. O. Thalacker, Philip Kent, Harry Benjamin Jr., and Mrs. J. B. Leahy.

"Ann's Fans" with G. R. Squibb.

Field of Maple Harvest Fest' Plans Set for October Date

BLOOMFIELD SOUTH-BIRMINGHAM FARMS—Plans for the Wing Lake school "Harvest Fest", Oct. 8, are going forward with leaps and bounds, according to Mrs. George Thomas, Sandwalk drive, general chairman of the affair.

Tickets are now available and Mrs. William Gidday of 8940 Woodbank drive or Mrs. Harold Johnson, 4631 White Pine Drive, would be happy to accommodate persons interested in attending. All committee chairmen and PTO board members will also have tickets for sale.

Russell Kitz, White Pine drive, a commercial artist, has donated some mighty attractive posters which are being displayed in the school and neighboring business areas.

BIRMINGHAM FARMS—Patricia McKeigan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McKeigan of Whitestone Drive, left Sunday for Kalamazoo and her freshman year at Western Michigan university.

Patricia was a June graduate of Bloomfield Hills high school.

MEADOWLAKE — "Carnival Time at Meadowlake" will be the theme of the festivities when the women's auxiliary of the Meadowlake Farms civic association presents its annual gala event at the lake, September 25 from 2 to 5 p.m.

A charming puppet theater will be the feature event. The midway will also be lined with such attractions as the Lucky penny toss, Apple ducking stand, Party-doll make-up salon, Balloon booth and Ye olde candy cupboard.

There will also be speed boat rides, old-fashioned sack race and an ice cream parlor. Persons interested in attending the affair may contact Mrs. Harry O'Brien, 6559 Hayland road, for further information.

MEADOWLAKE — Mr. and Mrs. Glover Ramsey and daughters Diana and Michele have returned to their home on Wye Oak road following a vacation on the west coast. Highlighting their trip was their attendance at a celebration honoring their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ramsey, of Portland, Ore., on their 50th wedding anniversary.

The Ramseys also visited friends in San Francisco where they resided before coming to Meadowlake to make their home.

WESTCHESTER — A certified "hole in one" provided the necessary card of admittance for three Westchester residents who participated in the "Hole in One" contest sponsored by the Detroit News, Sept. 7-8 at Redford golf club.

Mrs. Jack Heal, 4995 Lahser road, earned her right to compete in the contest by making a hole in one at the Wilson golf course, Pontiac.

Kenneth Brands, 5401 Breckenridge lane, executed his hole in one at the Riviera country club at Daytona Beach, Fla., while Jerry Nespart, 2908 Niddlebury Lane, won golf's top honor at Chandler park, Detroit.

While none of the three won fame or fortune during the two balls a-hole then in the contest, each was proud of his "hole in one" that allowed him to compete.

Candidates And Coffee

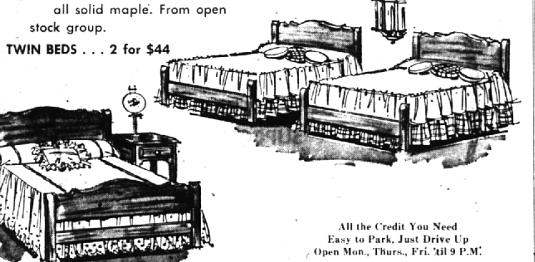

BERKSHIRES — Farrell Roberts, Republican senatorial nominee and Henry Hogan, Jr., (Rep.), third district state representative, will be guest speakers at a coffee to be held at the home of Mrs. Robert P. Lytle, 7065 Pinewood court, Sept. 23 at 1 p.m. Mrs. Lytle expects a cordial invitation to anyone interested in attending.
