Surprise, Surprise For Guest of Honor

BLOOMFIELD NORTH—LONE PINE HILLS—Mrs. Raymond Heinzelman of Cragin drive was the surprised guest of honor last Thursday evening at a baby shower given by Mrs. Nick Annis and Mrs. Theima Erikson. Twenty guests were invited to the Annis home on Cragin drive for cocktails then the group went on to Twin Beach country club for a sandwich. When they arrived Mrs. Heinzelman found 50 guests waiting with gifts and a buffet supper.

LONE PINE HILLS—Little newcomer at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Olson of Cragin drive is Bradley Paul who was born August 19. He is the Olson's first child.

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE—Traveling to Florida for the summer recently were Mrs. W. H. Kraus and her three daughters, Ronna and the twins, Toby Lynn and Terry Lynn. They went south to look over schools for Ronna, then stayed the night at the home of the Kraus family.

This was the girls' first try at the sport and Toby Lynn brought in a sailfish as did Mrs. Kraus. They released it and took home a sportsman citation. Terry Lynn and Ronna landed a good catch of king and haddock.

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE—The big exodus from the Village back to colleges and universities is well under way with most of the students returning this week. The University of Michigan seems to be the most popular spot for residents of Broadway boulevard. Just a few among the many who left Tuesday for Ann Arbor are Bob Brookman, Fred Buesser, Francis von Maur and Ann Abbott.

POXCROFT—Flying to California last Friday were the Blawie Kramers and daughters, Pat and Mary Jane who started school on Monday in Santa Barbara. The Kramers, who spent the summer there, have leased a home nearby and plan to join their daughters at the end of September.

POXCROFT—Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hauser of East Surrey are back after a month in California. Motoring via a new road to visit Mrs. Hauser's old home in Minnesota then toured the Badlands, the Black Hills and the National Parks. When they reached Utah they stopped in Ogden to visit Hauser's sister and took her with them for a big night in Las Vegas.

In California the Hausers visited many relatives, including Mrs. Hauser's daughter and her husband. They spent 10 days with friends in Los Angeles and enjoyed a weekend with friends at the Carl Ingham, Attorney at Law, 988 S. Adams Road, Birmingham, Michigan.
