

Lamb, Mink Combo

Brown dyed persian lamb, in fashionably styled coats and jackets, is excitingly new for fall. Whether it be self trimmed or complemented with a mink collar, the ladies love its new tones. These colors range from champagne beige to dark chocolate and have such exotic names as mocha, choco, espresso and sepia.

Young Boys Talk Fashion Jargon Like Their Dads

Young boys are becoming clothing conscious at an increasingly early age. Today such terms as "Ivy" and "Continental" mean as much to little Brother as they do to Dad. And clothing manufacturers are making it easier for every youngster to get the styles he wants.

THIS FALL HE CAN choose suits from a modified Continental all the way to the three-button natural shoulder style.

Among coordinates, solid color blazers are important fashion notes. Patterned jackets show madras coloring, plaids and checks.

VESTS — some reversible — compete for favor, in wool, velveteen and corduroy. Bulky sweaters make news, with shawl collars, high V-necks and crossover boat-necks as style setters. Ivy shirts, especially the pull-over placket model and the tapered shirt with neckband and shirttails, are popular.

HART SCHAFFNER & MARX autumn tones

mix bright and dark to burnish the world's finest worsteds. There's a worldly new color look to HS&M suits this fall; a lively, light-through-dark look that sparks our entire collection. Dark and light threads mingle in these fine worsteds to create colorful over- and under-tones. Not blaze-bright, but a quiet afterglow effect that gleams through browns, grays, olives and blues, patterned or plain. Hart Schaffner & Marx tailors Autumn Tones in the lively, youthfully slimming lines of the worldly new look.
