Couple Repeat Vows In Lutheran Ceremony

Ascension Lutheran church in Birmingham was the scene September 10 for the marriage of Janice Ann McAllister to Norman Thomas Karda. Vows were heard at 7:30 o'clock in the presence of 150 guests.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph John McAllister of Hummel drive, Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Karda.

FOR HER wedding, Janice wore a gown fashioned of silk organza with chintilly lace trim featuring a modified sweetheart neckline with bracelet length sleeves. A crown of pearls and rhinestones secured her fingertip veil. She carried a bouquet of white roses and an orchid.

Maid of honor was Nancy Pollock and bridesmaids were Paula Hughes and Patsy Lehman. They wore emerald green gowns designed with scoop necklines and carried cascades of fuji mums tipped in green.

FLOWER GIRL was Rene Hurcomb and she appeared in a gold short-sleeved dress with matching accessories.

Parks Hendry stood as best man and ushers were Charles Karda, and Dennis McAllister.

The bride's traveling outfit was a heather blue print ensemble with matching blue sweater and an orchid corsage.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. McAllister chose a royal blue silk organza sheath with matching accessories. Bridegroom's mother selected a cocoa brown lace dress with brown accessories. Both mothers had white glabella flowers.

No Room For Gloom When There Are Plenty of Lamps and Pictures.

Fall is the time we move indoors from our outdoor out-of-doors living.

Fall is the time after the children are ensconced in their respective schools and our homes are void of laughter and the fun children afford; that we want to brighten our homes for our joy in living.

New Lamps and new Pictures will play a very important part in our joy of living.

We have selected with great care many new Lamps and wonderful new Picture groupings for you. It will be our pleasure to show you and help—if we can—in your selections.
