

Diane Dawson Marries Robert Richard Olsen

Diane Elizabeth Dawson became the bride of Robert Richard Olsen Saturday evening at the First Methodist church in Birmingham. The candlelight ceremony was performed at 7:30 o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Dawson of Birmingham. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Christian Olsen of Berkeley.

THE BRIDE wore a princess line gown of ivory pleat de sole fashioned with a portrait neckline and bracelet length sleeves edged with alencon lace. Her bell-shaped skirt with back fullness fell into a chapel train. Her headpiece was an imported Brussels lace veil in mantilla fashion. The bride carried a prayer book with album lilies, stephanotis and ivy.

Karen Dawson, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Darbea Groves, Pam Swift, Lynne Dawson and Patsy Sullivan.

THE BRIDE'S attendants wore dresses of silk organza in violet fashioned with bateau neckline, draped bodices and bell-shaped skirts with side and back drapes forming a bow at the waistline.

Matching bouquets of lilies with circular veils were worn by the attendants. Maid of honor carried rubrum lilies, pink sweet heart roses and ivy designed in a French cascade. Bridesmaids carried cascades of lavender and pink roses, rubrum lilies and ivy.

Stanley Olsen served as best man and seating the guests were Don Dawson, Floyd Rathe, Leonard Wilczynski, Don Wilczynski and Frank Wilczynski.
