Newlyweds To Reside In Lansing

Kirk in the Hills Presbyterian church was the setting for the September 10 wedding of Janet Mary Longmire and Walter Scott Willett. The Rev. Harold C. DeWind officiated at the 7:30 o'clock candlelight ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of peach de soie with lace applique highlighted by tiny crystal beads and a corsage of crystal secured her fingertip veil. She carried an heirloom lace handkerchief which had been in the family three generations and a bouquet of white roses.

SHE WAS attended by her sister Barbara Longmire as maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Marlene Schlegel, Sylvia Meimer, Sally Sue Tenney and Gail Cookman. They wore silk dresses in shades of apricot and carried bouquets of white roses.

George E. Bee stood as best man. Ushers were Harvey Pranian, William Bumgardner, David Glass and John Vail.

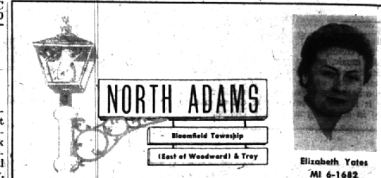

THE NEWLYWEDS drove to Cape Cod for their wedding trip. They will make their home in East Lansing where both are seniors at Michigan State university.

Off to N.Y. As Delegate

Mrs. John Kessler of W. Dartmouth road, Birmingham, president of the Detroit association of Ladies of Charity, left for New York City. She is a delegate to the four-day conference of the first general assembly of the Ladies of Charity, U.S.A., and the national council of Catholic Charities.

Mrs. Kessler will be a member of the national panel discussing the day of charity in action on Friday at the Grand Ball room of New York's Statler Hilton hotel.

Eager Dads Share Fun With Young Athletes

NORTH ADAMS—With fall comes football enthusiasm and enthusiasm is what the Eastern division of Little League footballers have as they drill at Pembroke park each afternoon.

Eager dads start arriving before the practice session is over to watch the coaches put their offspring and his buddies through the paces.

Robert Wandel II has been eastern division manager for the past three years. This year he has moved upstairs and is now general manager of Birmingham Little League football. Taking place as the eastern division manager is William D. Crim, Jr., of Dorchester road.

Coaches include Hardin Krutz, of the Varsity, and his assistants Robert Martin and Robert Spears. In the junior Varsity-Indians, Don Morse is coach. Fred Sawyer will coach the junior Varsity-Wildcats. Assisting is Ralph Price. Mrs. A. Robert Hordon is coach of the cheer leaders.

The little river in northern Michigan was the weekend tribal stamping-ground of the Shawnee tribe of Indian Guides. A scouting party preceded the tribesmen to the Robert Pittsley cottage where they made their headquarters on Friday evening. The tribe spent Saturday canoeing on the river and camping.

Enjoying the active week-end were chief and little brave, William and Chuck Rutter, braves and little braves, Chuck Amann and Ricky; John Ball Bee, Edward Craig and Jim Brown, Robert Clark, and Greg and Lyle, Mike and Tim Oviatt, Robert Pittsley with Mike and Ricky and Don Young and Steve.

Local parents responded with zest when the Eastover dance club was announced recently. The group of 25 couples began their semi-monthly dance sessions at the school last Thursday evening. Their instructors are George and Ginny Russell, of Southfield.

Throughout the summer Charwood and surrounding area friends received invitations from the Edward Smith, of Charwood drive, which read "Sip and Dip or Dive and Dine with the Smiths."

Houseguests enjoyed the Smith hospitality and pool were relatives Will Smith and Mrs. Jesse Elliott, both of Toronto; Mrs. Flore MacMuir, of Philadelphia; Mrs. Fred Swartz, of St. Petersburg, Fla. Other recent houseguests were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Osmun and children, Holly, Lou Anne and Kevin, of Hamilton, Ohio.

THE ALFRED J. MACKSEY, of Broomfield, of the 1960-61 year is now complete. The officers are president, William Lyman; father vice president, Albert Maas; treasurer, Mrs. Marion Gonyeau; mother vice president, Mrs. George Combs; treasurer, Donald Gatz; recording secretary, Mrs. L. Horvath; corresponding secretary, Mrs. David Bratton; historian, Mrs. Eugene Quackenbush.

Have You Met . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Howard T. Raymond of 664 W. Lincoln? They moved from Detroit on Aug. 1. He is employed by Vicker's, Inc. They have a daughter Ruth.

MRS. ROGER E. MORRISON

Newlyweds Honeymoon In Bermuda

The new Mr. and Mrs. Roger E. Morrison are residing in Forest Hills following a Bermuda honeymoon. Isabel Jane Whelan and Roger were united in marriage and Chuck Rutter, braves and little braves, Chuck Amann and Ricky; John Ball Bee, Edward Craig and Jim Brown, Robert Clark, and Greg and Lyle, Mike and Tim Oviatt, Robert Pittsley with Mike and Ricky and Don Young and Steve.

GIVEN IN MARRIAGE by her father, the bride wore a gown of white silk organza trimmed with hand-run alençon lace on the bodice featuring a portrait neckline and short sleeves.

The full skirt was fashioned with inverted pleats in the front, while unpressed pleats cascaded down the back into a chapel train. Her veil of imported illusion was attached to a pearl crown. She carried a small bouquet of white gladiolus.

Mrs. Richard Whelan, Jr., sister-in-law of the bride, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Thomas Pawlick, Mrs. Jennings Allen and Joan Mallett. The attendants were similarly attired in short blue velvet gowns.

THOMAS WATSON stood as best man and seating the guests were Richard Whelan, David McCallum and Karl Lotomski. The bride is a Wells college graduate and her fiancé is a graduate of Cranbrook school and Brown university.
