Sports Car Enthusiast Wins Racing Trophies

FOXCRÖFT—Mr. and Mrs. Stan Negas, of Crabtree road, spent a recent weekend at Elkhardt lake in Wisconsin attending the sports car race of the year, Road America, held by the Sport Car club of America.

Sports car racing has become almost a weekly event for Mr. Negas since he purchased a Corvette last May and joined the Sports Car Club of America and the Oakland County Sportsman's club. During the summer he won trophies at Waterford and in Canada. Last weekend Mr. and Mrs. Negas were in Grayling where he entered races. We think Stan Negas will become the most popular man in Foxcroft when neighbor boys hear the latest—he has ordered a Maserati from Italy and expects it will arrive in Detroit very soon.

Members of the Foxcroft branch, WNEGA were hostesses at a tri-garden club meeting Sept. 12 with the Westwood Manor and Wing Lake Shores branches.

The meeting was held at the showcase in Birmingham where Mrs. Yosh Morita presented a demonstration of the art of Japanese flower arranging. Tea table centerpieces were arranged by Mrs. Paul Billings. Hostesses were Mrs. Carl Burnett, Mrs. Robert Olson, Mrs. Tom Miner and Mrs. R. E. Stanford.

WING LAKE—Moving to Ithaca, N. Y., the end of this month are Mr. and Mrs. Jack Townsend and Timmy and Danny of Sheringham road. Their Wing Lake friends have been entertaining them at many farewell parties. Mr. and Mrs. Michael Susan, of Thurber road, and Mr. and Mrs. Don McIndry, of Foxcroft, gave farewell dinner parties for the Townsends. Mrs. Townsend was the guest of

Joan McDonald Back From Trip to Japan

GILBERT LAKE—Sailing home from Japan recently after three months with the American Field Service was Joan McDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard McDonald, of Timberlake road. Joan flew to Japan in June to live with the Ichiro Kato family in Shibuya, a suburb of Tokyo.

The Katos have two daughters and Joan attended high school for six weeks with the younger daughter. She studied flower arranging, painting and Japanese lettering and writing. She also vacationed for three weeks with the Kato family and toured five major cities with AFS.

During her visit to Japan Joan wrote an article on her reactions to Japan. This was published in a Japanese magazine. She also appeared on television.

The first in a series of bridal showers honoring Mary Welsh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Welsh, of Timberlake road, was given yesterday by Mrs. W. George Bird, of Golfview drive. Mary is to be married in November to Jim Doyle, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Doyle, of Marbledale, Mass. Mrs. Doyle came from Marbledale to attend the luncheon and shower. Another out-of-town guest was Mary's grandmother, Mrs. H. C. Ameling, of Grand Rapids.

Dinner Party Honors Vacation Companion

BLOOMFIELD HEIGHTS—A recent weekend house guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Roberts, of Lone Pine road, was Mrs. Ford Sargent, of Bay City. Her hosts met Mrs. Sargent while vacationing in Acapulco.

Saturday evening the Robertses gave a cocktail and dinner party for Mrs. Sargent. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Youel, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Canaday and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph J. Moore. Mr. Youel showed color pictures of his recent tour of Russia.

Many visitors who recently spent a week with Mr. and Mrs. Roberts were her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Brown and Greg, of Hayward, Calif. During their visit the Robertses gave a cocktail and dinner party in their honor. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Krieger, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Kurne, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Grissom, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Milburn, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rauten-
