Candidates and Coffee . . .

BLOOMFIELD TOWNSHIP — Enthusiasm for politics led Mrs. Robert P. Lytle, like many other Birmingham area hostesses, to hold a coffee session in her home Friday. About 40 women who gathered around her living room to hear two Oakland county candidates, State Senator L. Harvey Lodge, (at left) who is running for probate judge, and Henry M. Hogan, Jr., Republican candidate for State Representative from the third district. "I just can't tell you how enthusiastic people were when they left here," said Mrs. Lytle later.

Teachers are Honored

BEVERLY HILLS — All over the Birmingham area, scenes like this one were occurring last week. It was "room mother's tea" time, when school PTA-appointed room mothers invited other mothers to meet their children's new teacher. At Greenfield school, Mrs. Ruth Rebold explains the Number Aid use and first graders' work habits to mothers of children in her class. She was honored at a tea given at the school by the class's two room mothers, Mrs. Lawrence Gifford, of Elizabeth, and Mrs. Robert A. Dryden, of Lauderdale.

Crossing Guard Goes on Duty At Beverly School

BEVERLY HILLS — Parents of youngsters attending Beverly school breathed a sigh of relief this morning knowing their children would get across Southfield road safely. Early today, crossing guard Mike Omelianoff went on duty for the first time at the Beverly-Riverside, Southfield five-way intersection. It will be Mike's job to protect the 160 children walking to and from school via this route. Sixty-nine-year-old Omelianoff lives with his daughter, Olga, at 18542 Buckingham. For 34 years he was grounds keeper at the Detroit golf club.
