

MRS. PALMER BUNDY MRS. JAMES B. WEBBER, JR.

Torch Drive Campaign Names 2 Co-Chairmen

The Torch Drive has two new leaders of its Community Campaigns Unit for 1961. Mrs. Palmer Bundy will serve as co-chairman for community campaigns. Her associate co-chairman is Mrs. James B. Webber Jr.

Under their leadership, an organization of 40,000 men and women will conduct the residential and community business solicitation for Torch Drive funds. Their appointments were announced by Max M. Fisher, general chairman.

MRS. BUNDY, whose husband is a prominent Oakland county building contractor, has been active in United Foundation work since the inclusion of 10 western and northern Oakland townships in the Torch Drive in 1957. She served during the 1957 and '58 drives as Northern Oakland regional chairman, then in 1959 and '60 as Oakland County Community Campaigns Chairman.

As associate co-chairman of Community Campaigns, Mrs. Webber, who is a vice president of the United Foundation, will begin a brand new phase of her long association with the UF.

PRIOR TO THIS appointment with the Community Campaigns Unit, Mrs. Webber's campaign activity has been with the Advance Gifts committee. She served first as a worker and then as a Division chairman. In 1956 she was appointed Woman's co-chairman of Advance Gifts. Last year she was coordinator for the committee.
