

Gardeners Sow Plans For Special Meeting

BLOOMFIELD FARMS — The Bloomfield branch WNFCA are going to have husbands' night at Sylvan Glen Country Club April 14. Cocktails at 6:30 will begin the evening.

Mrs. Walter Meads, program chairman has promised an interesting and informative evening for the members. She has arranged for the Rev. Kanah Hanna to speak to the group on Arabia. Mr. Hanna is of Arabian descent.

Mrs. Robert Good, 6923 Dartmouth Road is in charge of reservations.

MEADOWLAKE — Otsego Ski Club at Hidden Valley was headquarters for Mrs. Fay Taube of Valley Spring Drive and Mrs. Garavolgia Jr. for one week recently. They went up for "Ski Week" and report that they enjoyed every minute of it.

Coffee and coffee cake were served on arrival to the board of directors of the Meadowlake branch WNFCA at the home of president Mrs. Harold Rowe, Valley Spring Drive March 27.

A motion was passed to present two malus hopy flowering crab trees to the Meadowlake Association. The trees are to be planted on Anchor Island in the subdivision. This will be one of the club's "chic projects" for the year.

The next meeting will be at 11:30 a.m. Monday at the home of Mrs. Richard Coleman, 6968 Castle Drive. Recording secretary Mrs. Grover Ramsey will give an enlightening lecture on "Fundamentals of Flower Arrangements and Design."

Spanish Class Trek 'Down Mexico Way'

NORTH ADAMS — Excitement mounted as Patrick Richardson of Pine Hill Drive and 15 of his Spanish speaking ninth grade classmates from Derby Junior High boarded a jet plane last Thursday morning for a fabulous week's tour of Mexico.

They arrived in Mexico City accompanied by Derby teachers, Misses Jean Pierce, Margaret Carter, Jean Hagan and Thelma Old. On their itinerary is a bus trip high in the mountains to Toluca, the capital of Mexico.

There they will visit one of the most unique markets in all of Mexico, Carmelite Monastery Santo Desierto built in 1600 will also be visited.

During Easter weekend, the group toured the national parks, historical landmarks and University City. They will also experience a rodeo trip through the canals of the Floating Gardens and the Sunday afternoon bullfights.

On Monday the Pyramids of the Sun and Moon, the great temple of Quetzalcoatl and the Shrine of Our Lady of Guadalupe, were among the many stops.

During the last half of their journey will take in the cities of Guernavaca and Taxco before arriving at Acapulco for a two day stay. They will take a sailboat cruise around the bay and surrounding islands.

The trip will come to a close on Saturday evening when they arrive home—but the memories will linger on for Patrick and classmates Bob Gellman, Mark Andrews, Pam Dreyer, Elsie Knocke, Harry Ellman, Jeff O'Neil, Vicky, Kathy, Martha Saxe, Christine Norstrom, Bill Streeley, Brook Shuler, Larry Bell, Judy Corry, Bob Robertson and Tom Jahneke.

The Henry Lands of Parklane Court have spent the past month touring the southland. They motored along the east coast of Florida, following the golf coast shoreline to Texas. During their travels through Texas they stopped at San Antonio where they visited Mrs. George Lundy, Mrs. Land's mother.

The Edward Browns of Robson Lane and University City. Brown attended the annual convention of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers and was chairman of a session during their stay in Los Angeles. After a few days of touring the city, they left for Las Vegas and its bright lights.

The Thomas Colleys and children, Carol and Christine, are spending the Easter week vacation at the Dalesburg, Ill. home of their mother's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Eldridge.

New Board Members Take Office in Braes

BRAES — The Braes of Bloomfield No. 1 and 2 recently selected a new slate of board members.

Richard Bergman was named to head the board with Neale Schermers as vice president and Robert Loudon as treasurer.

Schermers will chair the building committee; Frank Price is in charge of memberships; Charles Cary, head; Joe Koska and Van Myrold, social; and Richard McLaughlin UNO representative.

A dinner-dance, tentatively scheduled in late May, will be one of the first items on the new board's agenda.

Bloomfield 4-H club members were recipients of several awards at the Oakland County 4-H Achievement Day held March 25 at Pontiac Northern High School.

Linda Simon won an award for her letter cast project and also received honor and state show ratings.

Also receiving state show and honor ratings were James Drury, electrical and Ricker Ann Hoyle, clothing exhibit.

Others awarded recognition on the honor roll were Suzanne Kristin, knitting; Bridget Pahl, personal improvement; Linda Simon, child care, and Martha Phoebus and Linda Jacobson in food preparation.

WALNUT LAKE — The serene quiet evident in the Dowd household on Putnam Drive was a thing of the past for a pleasant 10 days that began Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Dowd greeted their son 2nd Lt. Arthur B. Dowd Jr. and Lt. Dowd's houseguest 2nd Lt. Gordon Sam.

Both young men just completed courses in Missile School at Fort Bliss.

After the 10 day leave Lt. Dowd will go to Fort Sam Houston at San Antonio, Texas, and Lt. Sam will return to Fort Bliss at El Paso, Texas.

BRAES — Mrs. Donald Irwin of Westmore Drive spent an exciting weekend recently.

First she visited Miss Bertha Kied in South Bend, Ind. Then she went on to Chicago where she attended the boat show and did a lot of Easter shopping.

BIAES — Although stereophonic are the happy noises you might hear coming from the Otto Trosos on Walnut Lake Road. All because daughters Carole and Dede are home for Easter vacation. With son Phil and youngest daughter Liz around it makes for a noisy but happy reunion.

Carole attends Michigan State University and is home for the weekend.

Dede came home a week ago and this weekend has as her houseguest, Andrew Elbert.

On Monday Mrs. Trosos and Liz will drive Dede and Andrew back to West Lafayette, Ind., where they attend Purdue University.

organ Drive are spending Easter week visiting Mr. and Mrs. James Campbell of Harrisburg, Pa., parents of Mrs. Sweger.

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Randau of Far Hill Drive entertained Mr. and Mrs. Richard Anderson and children and Judy Anderson of Flint last Sunday afternoon.

On Wednesday their daughter, Linda, a freshman at Alma College, arrived home for Easter vacation.

Attending the "Sound of Music" on one of the last evenings of its run were the Eugene Swans, the William Balwins, the David Williams and Henry Hogan, Jr., of Hickory Heights subdivision. The William Williams entertained the group at dinner in their W. Orchard Hill drive home before curtain time.

The Leonard Lane Association held their annual meeting and election of officers at the Harlan School recently. Taking over the duties from Charles Morse, past president, was newly elected president Charles Howson of Lanerang Drive.

Completing the slate of new of-icers are vice president, Donald Frankman of Union drive; secretary, Jack Sweger of Lanerang Drive and treasurer, Don Trumbull of Lanerang Drive.

Osage Garden Club members will trek to the Cotnamers Power building where they will observe a food demonstration and the importance of cooking with herbs on Monday afternoon. The dishes prepared will be used as door prizes. The time will follow the April program.

When Earle Ferguson of Tewksbury Lane sat down at the breakfast table on Saturday morning and opened his paper as usual he found he was reading news that was old—in fact it was exactly one year old to the day!

"April Fool" was Mrs. Ferguson's response. Nothing like planning a joke a year in advance!
