

U of M Men Pledge Social Fraternities

A total of 454 University of Michigan men have pledged membership in 43 campus social fraternities. After several weeks of visiting fraternity houses the men narrowed their choice to one organization on campus. Initiation ceremonies will be scheduled by the individual fraternities either late in the spring or next fall.

B'ham Students Receive Degrees

Five Birmingham area students have graduated from Michigan State University on March 20. Commencement exercises were held in the University Auditorium with Dr. Louis Norris, president of Albion College, as the speaker.

Graduates include Ann Draper, 22010 Haverford, B.A., elementary education; Mary Samantha Felton, 32250 Inker, B.A., elementary education; Barbara Jean Garrett, 210 Wadsworth Lane, B.A., history; Wayne Peterson, 30894 Hickory Lane, B.A., social science divisional and Kent Smith, 1740 Oak, B.S., landscape architecture.

Snively Wins Freshman Prize

Andrew J. Snively, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew W. Snively, Sr., 1433 Kirkway, Bloomfield Hills, has been awarded the William J. Branson Freshman Prize at the University of Michigan.

The award goes annually to those freshmen whose academic performances in a full program during their first semester place them in the top seven per cent of their class.

Snively, a 1960 graduate of Bloomfield Hills High School, is a student in science engineering at the university. He won mathematics awards from Bloomfield Hills High School and the Michigan Actuarial Society and placed highest in the Wayne State University mathematics qualifying examination.

Kathy Heym Wins Swimming Award

Kathy Heym, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Heym of 1888 Spencer, Bloomfield Hills, won a second place rating for her solo performance in the 100-yard freestyle entry in the duet field. "Tippy" also performed by Kathy Heym with Amy Brown of Oklahoma City, Okla., won a third place rating.

Miss Heym is a Junior in the private high school division of Monticello College.

Over 20 swimmers participated in the state-wide figure swimming festival at the Riverside Brookfield High School near Chicago March 24 and 25. Swimmers performed in solos, duets, trios and group presentations.

The two-day swimming meet included workshop sessions instructed by Beulah Gundling, internationally-known synchronized swimming champion, and a state-wide festival show, open to the public. The 14 festival critics select a number of their top acts for presentation to the public.

Two Monticello productions "Tippy" and "Pagan Love Song" were selected for the final water show which closed the Illinois Sectional Festival.
