Couples Club to Hold Gay Nineties Gathering

FRANKLIN—The very latest caper of the Couples Club, is a Gay Nineties party on April 14 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred McNabb, 27220 Appletree Lane; it is hoped to be a success.

Attie raids have already begun to produce ideas for a specialty of this group. Making plans and arrangements are the Hugh & Whites, the Ken Baileys and the Robert Mandys.

Despite good old fashioned come-one-come-all spirit of the group, it is necessary to call one of the committee for reservations on or before April 10.

Circles Plan Meeting Dates In Franklin

FRANKLIN—Three circles of the Franklin Community Church will meet Tuesday, each convening for luncheon at 12:30.

The Mary-Maria Circle will be the guests of Mrs. H. T. Rex, at her home at 31097 McKinney Drive. Members are collecting old nylon hose to be sent overseas and will continue the conversation series on "Jagan Funeral Customs".

MRS. A. L. MADGE, 7045 Ton Hill Road, will host the Ruth Circle with assistance from Mrs. Ellis Preme and Mrs. Donald Hogue. The Rev. Hugh C. White will speak on "Jagan Funeral Customs".

The study of Japan will be continued by the Rebecca Circle meeting at the home of Mrs. Roy Bushie, 1971 Craigin Drive.

THE ESTHER AND Sarah Circles will meet in the evening on April 13. Bert Wood will talk on the "Evolution of Franklin" before members of the Esther Circle at the home of Mrs. Dale Carse, 27115 Garfieldway.

Mrs. Earl Ramsey will present a review of the book "Dear and Glorious Physician" by Taylor Caldwell when the Sarah Circle meets at the home of Mrs. John Murray, 26620 Willowgreen.

Looking as though he had been "dipped in indine", Marc Oberschulte is back home on Colony Hill. Marc spent two months working as a bus boy at the famous Trade Winds hotel in Fort Lauderdale, where he not only encountered many celebrities but found trying to live on tips is no riot. He expects to resume his college studies next fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Willy Wagoner of German Hill Road have just returned from a month in Europe. By design, they beat the tourists and had a glorious time taking in the opera in France and Italy.

Pete Green surprised his family by coming home from the University of North Carolina for Easter. Not to be done out of the trip they had planned to see him.

Russia's Plan For Education PTA Topic

FRANKLIN—"Is Russia's Educational Program Better Than Ours?" The provocative title is the topic of the Franklin School PTA meeting, at 8 p.m. Monday.

Dr. Herbert Radman, MSU professor, will report on his visit to Russian schools. The guest speaker will encourage questions and discussion.

THE ELECTION of PTA officers will also take place. The nominating committee with Mrs. George Howard, chairman, presents a slate with Theodore Kelter as president; Mrs. Ketter, vice-president; Mrs. Ludwig Fischer, secretary; Harold Shattuck, treasurer; and Mrs. Phillip Price, corresponding secretary.

Other nominations should be brought to the attention of retiring president Dr. Ralph Smith before the meeting and should have the full consent of the person being nominated.

A small trophy will be awarded to the room with the most parents present at this meeting.

Burglars Ransack Beverly Hills Home

BEVERLY HILLS—A burglary at the home of Russell E. McKinney, 30313 Stellamar, was reported by a neighbor, H. M. Clark, Sunday at 9:30 a.m. The residence was ransacked, clothing, a portable television set, 10 bottles of liquor, jewelry, cigarettes and a radio were taken.

Entry was effected through door at the rear of the home.

The burglary was discovered by Clark who was checking the house for his neighbors, who were out of town overnight.

Wood Creek Shifts Annual Clean-Up To End of April

WOOD CREEK FARMS—Norman Krueger assumed his new role as president of Wood Creek Farms village Tuesday night with no great pressing problems on the agenda.

The council agreed to comply with the request of residents and change the annual Clean-Up Spruce-up campaign to April 29 through May 6 to allow for better weather.

Former street administrator Richard Norwell was named chairman of this year's campaign.

AN INCREASED number of complaints about stray packs of dogs in the village provoked the council into repeating the program of sending a letter to every family in the village, reminding them of their civic responsibility to keep dogs under control. Suggestions about methods to get relief from township and county agencies will be included.

Consumers Power company was given permission to construct a 135-foot gas main of two-inch pipe down Westbrook court.

A public hearing on the proposed street will be held just prior to the regular council meeting May 2. Although all roads will be graded, gravel cannot be spread until load limit restrictions are removed about April 15, residents were told.

Franklin Association To Hold Meeting

FRANKLIN—A joint meeting and potluck supper of the Franklin Cemetery Association and the auxiliary will be held April 13, 6:30 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Carrin on Cardigan's Lane.

The agenda for the annual event will also include election of association officers for the coming year.

Three Flags DAR To Meet in Lathrup

LATHRUP—Three Flags Chapter NSDAR will hold its regular monthly meeting Monday at the home of Mrs. Lee E. Stowell, 10884 Dolores.

Luncheon will be served at 11 a.m. Mrs. James Eastin and Mrs. Harry B. Alger will be co-hostesses. Mrs. George Snaddon, regent, will conduct the business meeting. Mrs. Conrad R. Bloom and Mrs. LeRoy M. Hooper will give their reports. April 17-21 in Washington, D.C.

from the state convention. Mrs. Snaddon, delegate, and Mrs. Robert Vint, alternate will attend the 70th Continental Congress April 17-21 in Washington, D.C.

Dorothy Duckwitz of Walled Lake Senior High School won honorable mention for her DAR "Good Citizen" essay, entitled "For What Avail if Freedom Fall".

INTER-CITY REAL ESTATE REFERRAL SERVICE, INC.

Suffield Road, a lovely street in the Quarton area. Available at this time is a home of fine caliber for the smaller family. Large enough for comfort, but not too big for convenience.

Three bedrooms; wool carpeting in all rooms, plus draperies, ledgerock fireplace in the living room. Oversized two car attached garage, and a lav adjacent to the large kitchen, which has breakfasting space. A big glazed porch (which could easily be heated for year round use) opens to a professionally landscaped site with trees and brick grill.

At the price of $29,900, we urge you to not delay in calling us for an appointment to see this brick ranch.

On the banks of the River Rouge. Delightful "walk-out" activity room approaches a wonderland of nature now in the Spring, and every season. Trees for shade in summer, for beauty viewed in winter from the fitnessides of the living room or lower level activity room.

This 4 bedroom, 2 1/2 bath Tri-Level is just like new! Modern kitchen has all the desired built-ins, including double ovens. Slate floored dining room. Carpeting in living room, stairs and hall. 2 1/2 Car attached garage provides extra storage area.

The fine area, close to town, is also near elementary school. Priced right - $40,900.

Sunshine and trees complement this Contemporary. Sparkling fresh, newly painted rooms include an extra lav on the first floor. Full basement has a children's playroom plus 22' recreation room for adults.

The owner has already purchased another home. Therefore, at $19,400 this is priced lower than any other three bedroom home in the area. Yet, location is the nicest, being the last house on a non-thru street.

Financing is answered with good F.H.A. terms!
