

Seaholm Thinclads
Lost Meet in 1960

The thinclads of Birmingham Seaholm High School have not lost an Eastern Michigan League dual meet since the season of 1953.

During the 1958-59 season Cranbrook's track squad defeated their cross-town foes, the Maples, in a non-league meet.

Spring Training

Billy Aufrecht (81 1/2), 515 Madison, Birmingham, misses the high hard one but hopes to level his swing in time for the minor league trials of the Birmingham Little League. Billy and friends gather daily at Poppleton Park for unofficial spring training. The boys not only play baseball, they also take care of the field, by sweeping and raking.

Netters

carry 16 players through the regular 14 match season. Last year the netters finished with a 7-7 record.

"Cranbrook should be tough," the coach said, "and Northville is always a bit difficult. There, Milford had a good young squad last season and our first match should be a real contest with Southfield." Southfield will benefit from the expert tutoring of former tennis professional Bob Neff.

THE BARON golf and track squads open their season Wednesday.

The track squad lost three big men in Dick Ford, who ran the 800 and is now racing for Michigan State; Barry Armstrong, a miler who was Oakland County champion; and Howard Schumann who ran a :10.1 in the 100-yard dash and was 220 man in the relay.

Bill Jones, all-Oakland County in football, is back for track. He will be a high-jumper and dash man.

OTHERS on this year's Falcon squad are Jerry Bergnosser and basket-baller Roger Stewart in the 400, Sam Bearden and Tom Hoopengardner in the mile and Tom Kozbial, Tim Maher and Jack Armstrong in the 800.

Mike Sepsely, a transferee from Cranbrook is expected to give the harriers a boost in middle-distance events.

Bruce Bish, a senior who came to Bloomfield Hills from Illinois, was expected to help the Barons at the pole vault. He had cleared 12 feet a number of times. Bish recently had his appendix removed and will be away from the track for approximately two weeks.

FILLING BISH'S shoes will be his younger brother, Bryan, who is also a pole-vaulter.

Jeff Aldred and Paul Chesna will provide punch in the shot-put. At the hurdles will be Jeff Aldred, Ted Barrett and Art Trevino. Fritz Stresen-Reuter will help the Barons at the broad jump. He has leaped better than 20 feet.
