Named Michigan's 1960 Driver of the Year for his 32 years of driving without a chargeable accident or traffic violation, Chester L. Rhoads, of 12001 Stahelin Avenue, Detroit, has driven over 1,000,000 safe miles during his career as a truck driver. A driver for Inter-City Trucking Service, Detroit, and one of nearly 7,000,000 truck drivers in the U.S., he is a professional driver who places courtesy and consideration of others high on the list of factors responsible for accident-free performance. Our hats are off to Mr. Rhoads and the eleven other truck drivers who competed for the Driver of the Year title, representing altogether 309 years and 15,359,600 miles of commercial driving without a chargeable accident!

Unitarian Women To Attend Meeting

Birmingham Unitarian women will participate in the spring meeting of Unitarian and Universalist churches in the Detroit area on April 19 at the First Unitarian-Universalist Church in Detroit.

"Liberal Women at Home and Abroad" will be the theme of the meeting.

Dr. Marion Edman, professor of comparative education, Wayne State University, will speak here after a luncheon on "Breaking the Language Barriers." He has been government education consultant in Germany, Lebanon and Vietnam.

Workshops on service, program and membership and a panel discussion on "Common Denominators in Our Denominations" are other features of the program.

Luncheon reservations may be made by contacting Mrs. Louis Haas, Jr., 1487 Banbury, Birmingham.

REV. O'GRADY

APRIL 13, 1961

Christ Church Will Install Rector Today

The Rev. Gerald B. O'Grady will be formally installed as Rector of Christ Church Cranbrook at 8 p.m. today.

Officiating at the service will be the Rt. Rev. Richard S. Emrich, Bishop of the Diocese of Michigan. A reception in the Church dining room will follow.

Rev. O'Grady came to Christ Church in January from the American Church in Geneva, Switzerland, where he was Rector for six years. He succeeds the Rt. Rev. Robert L. DeWitt, Suffragan Bishop of the Michigan Diocese.

Married and the father of four children, the 41-year-old Rector is a graduate of Williams College, Williamstown, Mass. and of the Episcopal Theological School, Cambridge. He served as chaplain and chaplain at Hartford Trinity College in Connecticut.

Plan Guest Minister At Pine Hill Church

Pine Hill Congregational Church will have the Rev. Philip Gentile, associate minister of Community Congregational Church of Lathrup, as guest minister for Sunday's services.

Rev. Gentile will substitute for the Rev. Dr. Alfred D. Gray who is vacationing with Mrs. Gray in California.

Church services and Sunday school classes will be held at the regular 11 a.m. hour in the Pine Lake Elementary School.

Plan Special Music

Special music will be provided by the Redeemer Baptist Church of Warren at Bloomfield Hills Baptist Church evening services during April.

Writer Will Speak To St. James Men

St. James Episcopal Church Men's Club will have Russell Barnes, the Detroit News Foreign Editor, as guest speaker for its April 26 meeting. Barnes will speak on current international events.

Reservations for the meeting may be made through the church.

Missionary to Visit Hills Baptist Church

Members of Bloomfield Hills Baptist Church will learn about the traditions of German young people for professional religious service Wednesday when the Rev. Wayne B. Detler of Wheaton, Ill., visits the church.

A missionary candidate of the Greater Europe Mission, Rev. Detler was recently appointed an instructor in the mission's German Bible Institute in France.

He is a native of Pontiac. Mrs. Detler will accompany her husband on the visit.

Church Awaits Finishing Touches

United Presbyterian Church of Our Saviour awaits the finishing touches on its new chapel and educational unit located on a 13-acre site on Middlebelt, south of W. Main, in the last of three churches begun in W. Bloomfield Township. Dedication ceremonies recently followed completion of interior work by members of the congregation. The church, designed by architects Stickle, Jaroszewicz and Moody of Birmingham, is the last of three churches begun by First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham.

St. James Women Plan WSU Speaker

St. James Episcopal Church women will have Miss Ujjwala Salve of India as guest speaker at their monthly luncheon meeting April 13. Miss Salve's subject will be "Christian Approach to Foreign Aid."

A P.E.O. international peace scholarship student at Wayne State University, Miss Salve is a doctoral student in Education. She hopes to return to India to instruct teachers at a Jaijabur Methodist institution and eventually establish a village school.

She is president of the Indian Students' Association at Wayne State.

The spring ingathering of the United Thank Offering for all church women will be held at all three services Sunday. The money collected is used for missionary and training work.

Clergy Friends of MSUO Plan Ministers Program

A spring workshop for Birmingham area ministers and their wives will be held by the Clergy Friends of Michigan State University on April 24.

The day-long session will feature guest speaker Dr. J. C. Wynne, former director of the family education research office of the United Presbyterian Church and assistant professor of Christian education at Colgate-Rochester Divinity School.

Husbands and wives will be divided for separate morning sessions on "The Pastor: His Ministry With Church Families." Husbands and wives will join for an afternoon session on "The Pastor: His Role as a Person in Counseling."

Methodist Circles Sponsor Program

Husbands of members of the evening circles of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of First Methodist Church will be guests at the circled annual meeting of 8 p.m., April 13.

A one act religious drama, "Ropes, Williams and Mary," presented by the Chancel Players will highlight the program. The cast includes the Rev. Robert Falk, Mrs. Forrest Fox and Robert Johnson.

A fellowship hour and devotions by Harold Sewell are included in the program.

Circle leaders Mrs. Elmer Bish, Mrs. Stan Skalkitis, Mrs. Leo Jarvis and Mrs. Frank Allen are in charge of arrangements.

Presbyterian Men To Hear Zoologist

The Men's Club of First Presbyterian Church will have Dr. Charles F. Powers, oceanographer and assistant professor of zoology at the University of Michigan, as guest speaker at a 8:45 p.m. dinner meeting April 20.

"Some of the mysteries of the 'Eight Oceans' in the Great Lakes" will be revealed in his talk and pictures on "Marine Wonders."

Dr. Powers is attending the "Fourth Conference on Great Lakes Research" in Ann Arbor.

The meeting will be open to all members of the church and visitors.
