

Lapeer Association Plans Dance, Cards

Mrs. Sheldon Marston, 1870 Webster and Harold Bergum, 7380 W. Greenwich Drive, both of Birmingham, are assisting with ticket sales for the dance, card and games party, sponsored by Lapeer Parents Association. The event will be held Saturday from 8:30 p.m. to 1 a.m. in the Fort Wayne Hotel Ballroom. The party will celebrate the association's 12th anniversary. All proceeds will be used to furnish recreational, educational and training equipment (which the state does not provide) for the 4,000 patients in the Lapeer State Home and Training School, as well as support the existing program and other services for the mentally handicapped.

6 Area Residents On Choir Tour

Six residents of the Birmingham area will be among members of the Albion college choir when it leaves the campus for its spring tour in mid-April. The choir will meet fifteen concert engagements in Michigan and Ohio.

Lathrup Village residents are Terrence C. Clark, freshman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Corwin C. Clark of 18680 Bungalow, bass; David M. Hines, senior, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel M. Hines of 3710 E.
