To Hear Missionary Speak on Congo

The Oakland County District Nurses Association will meet Tuesday to hear Dr. P. S. Marsa speak on "Katanga". Dr. Marsa, a practicing physician in Lake Orion, was a missionary in the Congo during World War II. In 1957 he returned as an M.D. to Songa Hospital, Katanga Province, where he stayed for three years.

He and his family returned to Oakland County in 1960 just after independence was granted and the Congo was in revolt.

DR. MARSÁ will tell of his work in the Congo and the need for health teaching, using a film and slides to enlarge his subject. The meeting will be held at Pontiac General Hospital and begins with a coffee hour at 7:30 p.m.
