Cast Gets Coaching From Local Man

With dramatic coaching from Melvin L. Whittle of Birmingham's Studio Guild Theatre, members of the Michigan Opera Company are preparing for their opening April 22 of Verdi's "La Traviata".

Whittle is Producer-Director of the Birmingham theatre group. He is directing both principals and chorus of the "Traviata" cast in dramatics.

The non-profit Michigan Opera Company production will be presented at Detroit Institute of Arts Auditorium.

Playing a leading role in the production is Karl Kreuger, of 889 Chestnut, Birmingham. Four local residents — Judy Vaughn, Susan Smith, Pat Smith and Susan McLaughan — are members of the chorus.
