Varied Locales Picked By Touring Residents

BEVERLY HILLS—The natives are excited this week. Two-thirds of them spent spring vacation and longer soaking up Florida sun. The Frank M. Johnsons of Medford chose Pompano Beach for a week's holiday with Janet, Peter, Frank and Patty.

So did the D. J. Dugans of Belmont. But their three-week vacation also included a tour of Williamsburg and a stop in Georgia to play the championship Glen Arven club golf course.

The W. C. Russells of Lahar returned after two months in Hillsboro, returning the day before Easter.

Other travelers are the Grandin Walkers of Pierce who picked Hollywood and Hallandale for a pre-Easter holiday with Steve and Scott.

Most vacationers returned last weekend along with the Ronald O'Brien of Belline Trail, the Adam Zimmermans of Riverside and the Milo Bartendfelders of Reeders.

The O'Briens visited Lakeland, Daytona Beach and St. Augustine during their two-weeks and took the long way home through the bluegrass country to photograph thoroughbreds working out for the Derby.

The Zimmermans stayed in Miami Beach with Sue and Jane while Jim took off for Fort Lauderdale.

The Milo Bartendfelders enjoyed a month in Fort Lauderdale in spite of the rioting, but their four boys had a ball because of it.

Joe Racine of Snydlope and Curt Ashcraft were then enjoying the show from Lauderdale-by-the-Sea as were John Caldwell of Evergreen and Tony Kenny of Bedford who were driven down by Bill Pauls of Pierce. Don Kolb of Belline Trail joined U. of M. students in Washington, D. C. with Sealhorn students.

Hawaii was home to Mrs. Robert Johns of Waltham for the past six weeks. She took the island with a niece from Long Beach, Calif. During her stay at the Reef in Honolulu, she met Mrs. I. J. Helm of Birmingham who was a guest of the Surf Rider.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Nash of Vernon drive also vacationed in our 50th state. They sailed from San Francisco on the Lurline in early February, spent a month in Gayle Evans, 7, of Elizabeth celebrated her April 6 birthday with an all-ink luncheon for 11 friends.

Small wonder Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lewis of Mayfield are proud grandparents. Their own Gale McKown Detroit was one of the four-year scholarship winners announced by Ford Motor last week.

Looking for local color? Try the Robert Andersons of Vallen Court for the past three weeks they've been dyeing Easter eggs for their traditional egg hunt while Jeanne paints sheet scenery for her very own production of Hamlet and Gretel.

A couple of first graders are playing the title role. 11-year-old Jeanine is in her second season of producing, set designing, writing and acting. She's owning the witch. Interested in tickets? Call Jeanine—she's handling the box office, too.

Mrs. Albert Zimanski of Stellan will be hostess tomorrow night at a buffet and first baby shower for Mrs. Leo Garzani of Livonia.

Meetings next week include coffee for the board of the South Berkshires Women's association next Wednesday at the Marvin Clines on Stellmar.

The West Beverly Hostess Club meets Tuesday for coffee at the Hillcrest home of Mrs. Wm. G. O'Rourke, who will be assisted by Mrs. William Bailey of Locherie.

Plan Spring Dance For Association

WEST BEVERLY—Co-chairmen of the West Beverly Association's spring dinner dance have scheduled the annual event for May 6 at Devon Gardens.

William Bailey of Locherie and Mrs. John Russell of 14 Mile Road head the committee planning the 8:30 p.m. buffet and dance. Mrs. Richard Shurg, 14 Mile Road is in charge of tickets and Mrs. Herbert Ashcraft of Devonshire will handle publicity.

The annual meeting and election of next year's officers will be part of the evening program.

Educators to Attend PTA Meeting

BEVERLY HILLS—The Wylie E. Groves PTA will hold a general meeting for all members April 20 at 8 p.m. in the school's Little Theater.

Following a short business meeting, leading educators will discuss the value and advantages of the communications college in the education of our children.

Physical Fitness Is PTA Topic

VALLEY WOODS—Parents and teachers will get a look at "Physical Education in Valley Woods" Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. when the PTA has programmed a discussion-demonstration by students and teachers.

Physical education teachers Fred Lee from Valley Woods and Pierre and Charles Veorn of Beverly and Quarto will explain the fitness, skills, recreation and social phases of physical education. Students will illustrate the program with exhibitions of tumbling, relays, acrobatics and dancing.

THE 1961 PTA president, Mel Rentchler, also announced next year's PTA officers who were elected at the March meeting and the reading of a critical survey for PTA members by chairman Mrs. Earl Lapp.

Heading the PTA in '62 will be P. Ralph Helm, the father-vice president; Mrs. C. E. Barone, teacher-vice-presidents; Mrs. Elizabeth Welton for the upper grades and Nancy Grubough for the lower grades.

Mrs. Robert Mease was elected recording secretary and Mrs. Q. Skyles, corresponding secretary. Ways-and-means vice-president: Melvyn Merrill and Robin Collie was named treasurer.

Barber to Preside At Education Confab

Grant Barber, principal of Quaron Elementary School, will preside at the annual conference of the Michigan Department of Elementary School Principals at Michigan State University April 20-21.

Barber is president of DESP which is a department of the Michigan Education Association.

Theme of the conference is "Tomorrow's Schools Today." Highlighting the conference will be certification and professional standards, legislative action in Michigan, increasing membership, elementary school libraries, and transfer of pupil records.
