Limb-ering Up

Terry Dexter Weds Karlton Pierce, Jr.

Terry-Anne Dexter, daughter of Mrs. and Mr. John Cook Dexter of Grand Rapids, became the bride of Karlton Wayne Pierce, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Karlton Wayne Pierce of Hupp Cross Road, Birmingham, in a Saturday afternoon ceremony in Grand Rapids. The Rev. Joseph Q. Mayne officiated at the rites at Kline Memorial Chapel, East Congregational Church. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a long-sleeved white satin gown with a scalloped petal bodice, accented with jeweled lace appliques. Her bouffant satin skirt ended in a chapel train. A waist-length veil of imported tulle was attached to a princess crown of seed pearl bow knots. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations with a lavender center and streamers of variegated ivy and love knots.

MRS. K. PIERCE, JR.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Collins of Grand Rapids, serving as host and hostess. The couple will reside at Hilldale where they are both students at Hilldale College.

Party

THE RAYMOND T. Ferrings and Senon Knocks were noted in jolly conversation—the Ferrings had returned only two days before from three weeks at Cat Cay, the Bahamas and Florida. The Drew Haneines, S. L. Goodales and Richard Kochs were together and the Edward Sammuts were visiting with different groups.

THE WILLIAM A. Prews (he's the Beavers' retiring president) were in a large group that included the Jarvis Webbs, Fred Rolluses, William Plochs, the Robert Stubbes, the George Webbs and the Mason Browns as well as the David Clarks and S. J. Gurneys. Mr. and Mrs. A. Frye Ayers were with the Lynn Townsends, Dr. and Mrs. Irven Travis, and the C. F. Ozdens and Hugh Dalys of Grosse Pointe.

B'ham AAUW Members To Attend Convention

A new slate of officers for the American Association of University Women was announced by outgoing president, Mrs. Robert F. Kohr, at the monthly luncheon last Wednesday in the Birmingham Community House.

Officers for the coming year beginning July 1 will be Mrs. Preston R. Weir, president; Mrs. Charles Shaw, first vice president; Mrs. Richard Ringe, second vice president; Mrs. George Howell, recording secretary; Mrs. H. S. McFarland, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Robert G. Surridge, treasurer; Mrs. Howard Key Morgan, book and study group chairman and Mrs. Gerald Joynt, special projects chairman. MEMBERS OF Birmingham branch will join with those of 58 other branches of the Michigan division of AAUW in attending the thirty-ninth annual state convention to be held in the Pick-Durant hotel in Flint tomorrow and Saturday.

SUBURBAN SCENE

Art Auction

The plan of art students helping fellow students by a sale of their own work began four years ago at Cranbrook Academy of Art when the student council aided an Hungarian refugee artist through this method. The idea was continued in the form of an auction for the benefit of talented fellow students.

This year's auction will be held Sunday in the Galleries from 2 to 5 p.m. Objects for sale may be previewed in the galleries Friday from 8 to 10 p.m. and Saturday from 2 to 5 p.m.

Laurence Dumouchelle, Detroit auctioneer, is contributing his services for the completely student-operated sale which will offer such objects as paintings, sculpture, metal, ceramics and weaving.

Robert Kidd of Cincinnati, Ohio, chairman, said the students hope to raise funds to provide seven full scholarships.

Anniversary Event

A number of Birmingham residents will be among those attending the glittering (with Naval brass) reception and dinner tomorrow night at Riverside Naval Armory, honoring the 61st anniversary of the U. S. Navy Submarine force.

Mrs. John Lavrakas of Birmingham, attending with her husband, Capt. John Lavrakas USNR, is serving as official hostess.

Coming to Detroit to be a special guest is Vice-Admiral Elton W. Grenfell, Commander of the Submarine force, Atlantic fleet. Also being honored is Lieut. Raymond Helgrave, captain of the USS Cero, which is stationed in Detroit.

Among localites on the guest list, which has been limited to 150, are Commander and Mrs. David Zimmer, Admiral and Mrs. Carl Tiedeman, Dr. and Mrs. Cecil Akroyd, Mr. and Mrs. George Lahodny, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Reed, Mr. and Mrs. John Petrakis and Mr. and Mrs. William Woodside Jr.

Journey in Time

Antique lovers, and there are a number of collectors in this area, trekked to the antique show held this weekend at Ford auditorium. Bet there are a lot of "new-old" items in Birmingham homes.

AFS Fete Will Help Fund Plans

Birmingham area women are offering as well as discussions will be offered by students. The AFS festival will raise money for scholarships to bring high school students from other countries here and to send American students abroad. Foreign goodies, featuring overseas recipes, gift items from many countries and a plant sale will be offered as well as discussions will be offered by students.

FOREIGN MUSIC will provide a background for the serving of tea, coffee and punch. Participating in the festival plans are Mrs. M. Butzel in charge of coordinating and printing and Mrs. W. R. Brashear, handling publicity. Mrs. T. H. Mabley and Mrs. Brooks Marshall will assist as hostesses. Mrs. A. C. Thaler is chairman of the north county branch AFS. Honorary metropolitan Detroit chairman is Mrs. George Romney, with Mrs. Carmel serving as general chairman.

STUDENTS attending local schools from abroad, who will be at the festival, are Karel Vogel and Jorunn Pettersen of Norway; Francisco de Toledo of Brazil; Ursula Pechman from Austria; Finn Larsen, Denmark; Florence Cassali, France and Annetegross, Germany. Birmingham area residents who have studied abroad under the program will also participate. They are Mossy Harvey, Jeff Fisher, Joan McDonald and Jack Newton.

The U. S. Savings Bonds program has been the pattern for savings bond and stamp projects operated by the governments of half a dozen other nations, which have sent officials to Washington to study and observe our methods.
