

The Coast Guard is seeking applications from qualified men of military age who wish to serve in the regular Coast Guard. The enlistment period is four years with 12 weeks of basic training at either the New Jersey or California Training Stations. Upon completion of training, after a period of "boot" leave, en-listees either attend one of the selective service schools for further advanced technical training or are immediately assigned to a Coast Guard ship or station.

Interested applicants may either call, write or visit the Main Coast Guard Recruiting Station, Room 409, Federal Building, Detroit 26.
