

Two Beverly Couples Return from Europe

BEVERLY HILLS—Two village couples returned from Europe on the same Tuesday last week, but not until the coincidence ended.

Wille Mr. and Mrs. John D. Young of Buckingham whirled through seven countries in their month abroad, Mr. and Mrs. Russell H. Harriman of Woodhaven Lane spent two months on a leisurely cruise and tour of the Mediterranean countries.

Business took the Youngs to London, Denmark, Sweden, Paris, Germany, Italy and Switzerland with time to spare for a drive along the Riviera and down through Turin, Milan, Florence and Venice. Their special loves? Paris, where spring was budding, and Switzerland, where they found as much as 20 feet of snow at the Wimplon pass.

Cathy Mary and Peggy Young visited their paternal grandparents in Durham, N. C., but returned before their parents in New York. The girls will see Europe soon through the Youngs' exposed 20 roles of film on their trip.

The Harrimans, traveling with the Martin Kaisers of Northville, cruised on the Constitution and the Independence, touching at many ports before leaving the ship to ton, D. C. But Mrs. Peter S. Cordeu, Tom and Betty, went on to Bethesda to stay with her sister, while Mrs. Nell Brady, Diane Cynthia, Stephen and David visited her parents. Dr. Brady and Cordeu visited their families for the drive home.

It's been several weeks since the Linsley Gays returned to Devonshire from Fort Lauderdale, but the J. W. Moores of Norcross came back just last Friday. They traveled from St. Petersburg to the Keys and back to Coral Gables before ending their three months in Fort Lauderdale.

U of M honors student, Jerry, hit the books on Mayfair Lane, while his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Storch and Howard took in four cities in a five-day trip: Springfield, St. Louis, Chicago and Milwaukee.

VALLEY WOODS—Mr. and Mrs. John C. Moons of East Belleville covered both coasts of Florida in their two months away, yet the high spot of their trip was a stop to see the camellias and azaleas at the Bellongrath Gardens in Mobile.

Home less than a week and they're making plans to entertain the Roger Rogers of Boulder, Colo., who are returning for a week's visit. Invitations are already out to a dinner at Orchard Lake and a cocktail party at the Reeces Club for the Moons' houseguests.

Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Douglas, Jr., Mary Ellen and Drex, took a last two weeks at Alta, Utah and Sun Valley before storing their skills on Evergreen.

The Calico Kickers have gone underground! They're meeting in basements instead of the Valley Woods School. Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Van Every say square dancers are welcome to their Smallwood home when the nets are formed tomorrow night.

The Otto Pokornys of Stafford were six weeks in Fort Lauderdale and only seven blocks away from the so-called riots, but they weren't disturbed a bit. They found humor in the boys sleeping on the benches like "seals on a rock" and in this lost-and-found ad, "Suitcase of a light-traveling student. Contents: dirty shorts, sweat sock and sweat-shirt."

Heading back to Kennoway court after two weeks in Ormond Beach, Fla., the John A. McClanathans stopped in Granville, Ohio, to re-visit their alma mater and found many changes. The biggest and best: daughter Sally's name on the list of students accepted for fall enrollment.

The M. L. Jorgensons returned to Martin Court after 10 days at Lauderdale by the Sea with their son John.

EAST BEVERLY—International relations got a boost from Ann Baltzell, daughter of the Eugene Baltzell of Birwood, entertained U of M D.L. clubbers recently. Students from Kenya, Bolivia, Korea, Puerto Rico and Venezuela brought native records for dancing. Hard! In every country it's still the same cha-cha-cha.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Carter and Russ of Buckingham vacationed in Pompano Beach, Fla., spending two weeks with her sister's family.

John Forentz of Reedmere is off to Sea Island, Ga., with Walter Laidlow for a conference with community fund raisers. He had to go—he's U.F. campaign manager—just as Mrs. Forentz had to stay at home. Kirk and Marshall had mumps on vacation!

When the R. A. Vibberts of Beverly Road drove to Washington, D. C. for a holiday, they left Linda Giles of Kinkshire in Mt. Lebanon, Pa. for a visit with former villagers, the Hugh Blacks. The Vibberts, Rob, Margie and Bill, went on to tour the capitol, Williamsburg and Jamestown.

U of M freshman Carol Rubach's vacation visitor amazed Birwood. Meredith Seapy of Long Beach, Calif., not only sails on the "M" team but sings and sews. She whipped up a new concert skirt in three hours in time to leave with the touring "M" singers.

The Ralph Johnsons and Carol of Kinkshire had a warm nine-day trip to Mississippi and New Orleans but left and returned in a blizzard!

While the M. L. Lornes of Bedford spent five weeks in Phoenix where temperatures climbed to 100 degrees!

The Herbert Luggers, Jean Ann and Sherry of Beechwood paid a return visit to the Smokies where they met other vacationing villagers: the Don Cummings of Birmingham and the Warren Risks of Warwick.

WNFGA to Create May Day Corsages For Retired Ladies

WEST BEVERLY—May Day corsages for the women at the Pontiac Home for the Aged is again the creative project for West Beverly WNFGA members at their meeting next Thursday.

Mrs. Herbert Ashcraft of Devonshire will be hostess for the April 27 meeting, which begins at 1 p.m. Mrs. James Moorcroft of Norchester will assist at the dessert-luncheon.

To Hold Record Hop In Farmington Area

A record hop, complete with disc jockeys Lee Allan of WKMI and Clark Reid of WJIK, is planned April 28 for teenagers in the Franklin and Farmington area.

For ninth graders through senior highs, the dance will be held at Our Lady of Sorrows new parish hall. Proceeds are for the St. Colman's church rectory fund.

BEVERLY HILLS—Mrs. Thomas Knight, Card party at Our Lady Queen of Martyrs, 16107 Birwood, and Mrs. L. J. Langton, "A Night in Hawaii" is planned April 28, 32384 Beaconfield, look on as Mrs. Louis H. Gauthier and daughter, Lou Anne, 7, give a hint to the theme for the next PTA
