Local Girls to Model 'Festival of Fashions'

FRANKLIN—Strong overtones of mind-over-weather prevail today as Franklin women attend a "Festival of Fashions," held by the Women's Society for Christian Service at the Franklin Community Church.

Franklin merchants Margi Franzel and Pennyfriches present the latest spring fashions with WSCS members and friends as models. President of the sponsoring group, Mrs. John Harms, and Mrs. R. J. Hampson and Mrs. John McLean will be augmented by non-members Mrs. Donald Hickey, Mrs. Richard Kern, Mrs. V. R. Probst, Mrs. Paul Ricker and Mrs. Wendell Smith in the parade of milady's latest raiment.

Hairstyles are the creation of local stylists, Chetti and Gerald. A delightfully youthful touch is added by models Kay Heideman, Susan Lopnow and Cindy Roberts.

Show and tea decorations will be arranged by Mrs. Edward Green's committee and Franklin Interiors, in the social halls of the church.

Anyone planning a late spring trip to Florida might just as well know all the "big ones" are gone. The Ralph McRuthers of Irving Road, avid fishermen, spent two weeks near Miami casting and catching the best in the sea.

Home, too, are the Edwin Kloves

A VERY SPECIAL HOUSE

Don't look at this house unless you —

LIKE Contemporary with intriguing artistic touches,
WANT 1¾ Acres with a Bloomfield Hills address — (can have horses here too),
ADORE the cheer of a fireplace and fun of Barbecuing in the Kitchen or on the long screened Porch too,
NEED only two Bedrooms now but want to expand to four later (designed for expansion and plans available), (2 Baths already in),
APPRECIATE features like a handsome slate floor (over zolnite base) and plate glass windows.
LOVE A wide-open view at the rear and trees, trees (about 100 including apple, peach, walnut).

As we said, this is a very "special" home and if it's your type, you will find no better!
