Boy, 5, Bitten; Hunt for Dog in Birmingham

Birmingham police are seeking a black dog with a white spot on its chest which bit five-year-old Steve Laclave Monday afternoon.

The dog, described as having upright ears, a long tail and being a little larger than a cocker spaniel, is suspected of having rabies. It is being sought in an effort to avoid administering anti-rabies shots.

The dog was last seen on Monday heading toward Villa near Torry School where Steven was bitten in the mouth while playing. It is believed to be a stray dog.

Steven is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Laclave, 1709 Holland, Birmingham.

Anyone having any information as to the whereabouts of the dog is urged to contact the Birmingham Police Department.

New Branch Store for Hills

Newest addition to the Bloomfield Center shopping district opened Monday morning when Richard J. Wilson (left) handed the front door key to Wilson's of Bloomfield to its new manager, John Gregersen, Wilson's of Bloomfield (at 71 W. Long Lake) is a branch of Wilson Drug Co., 101 N. Woodward, Birmingham. Wilson, who is company president, said the Bloomfield branch will hold its grand opening the weekend of June 1. It is a complete drug store, including prescription, cosmetic, toilet goods and notions departments. Hours are 8:30 a.m.-7:00 p.m. weekdays, 9 a.m.-3 p.m. Sundays. Gregersen has been a pharmacist at the Birmingham store for nine years.

Hills' School for Gifted Opens Gallery Saturday

Residents will have an opportunity to see the "artist at work" Saturday and Sunday when 18 craftsmen will demonstrate their talents at the third annual Spring Gallery at City and Country School for Gifted Children in Bloomfield Hills.

The two-day show, open to the public free of charge, will be held from 2 to 9 p.m. on Saturday and from 1 to 6 p.m. on Sunday. Proceeds from the sale of art objects will be used for the school's scholarship program.

The art demonstrations will include: Mrs. John (Ellen) Hilberry—the patchwork quilt; Mendon Westcott—leather tooling; Mrs. Gerald (Ellis) Schwartz—mosaic work; Daga Ramsey (Mrs. Jack)—graph-

The exhibiting artists are: Bob Diebold, John Glick, Glen Michaels, Raymond DeVieschow, Guy Palazzola, Irving Berg, Kingsley Calkins, Gene Kyle, Mary Boardman, Doris Ann Smith, Milton Kennitz, Mary Rupp, Barbara Dorr, Mrs. Cyril Miles, Jane Lorne, Eldon Durr, Tony Balthazar, Carl Wagoner, Roger Crispell, Dorothy Siddall, Thad Beyzalski, Lucy Brackett, Fred Wall, Rosemary Allen, Walter Lonasko, Sophie Borden, Mike Vindeli, Hardy Broderson, and Clifford West.

Chairman for the Spring Gallery is Mrs. Sidney Barnes of Bloomfield Hills.

Three Seaholm Seniors Win Nat'l Scholarships

Three Birmingham Seaholm High School seniors have been awarded merit scholarships from the National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

The three scholars are: Charles Harper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Harper, 352 Wimbeldon, Birmingham; Joyce Kettlar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Kettlar, 2225 Golfview, Birmingham; and Sally Ryden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ryden, 32805 Riverside, Beverly Hills.

Charles Harper has made an important place for himself as an honorary representative to the Student Congress and a member of both the swimming and baseball teams.

He served as president of his junior class in Westbury, Long Island, vice president of the Westbury Student Council, a member of the National Honor Society, Theatians, and a member of the yearbook staff.

HIS VAST experience has given Charlie foresight and a true sense of humility. Next year Charlie will attend Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in New York where he will study management and engineering.

Activities in Library work, Biology Club, Future Teachers, Junior Achievement, National Honor Society, and the Detroit Metropolitan Science Fair reflect Joyce's interest in academic enterprises outside of class.

HER PROUDDEST accomplishment has been placing first in the regional Forensic Speech Contest in the field of humorous interpretation.

Next year Joyce plans to attend the University of Michigan or Michigan State where she will study writing and philosophy.
