

The Birmingham Eccentric

Wednesday, April 26, 1961

BIRMINGHAM, MICHIGAN

SECTION

C

'Paris Flea Market' to 'Invade' Farm

The Village Woman's Club is bringing for the "Treasure Auction and 'Flea Market'" like old home week. The Country Barn at the William Hartman home on LaSher Road hummed with enthusiastic exclamations as fascinating items of great value and interest came pouring in.

The auction will take place May 6 at the L. E. Smart Sale Farm, Tiengen Road, Rochester. The public is invited. The day will start at 10 a. m. with a flea market sale of small treasures. All auction items may be seen and sampled before the sale at 1 p. m. The day ends at 5 p. m.

AT THE Inauguration, Mrs. Ralph J. Wagner, chairman of storage and transportation, and her committee took note of the donations and stored away the more delicate items in two lovely moon star bowls which were brought in by Mrs. Edward S. Welles.

MRS. THERON VAN DUZEN drove up with a pine knee hole desk on which Mrs. Elmer G. Fremont deposited a handsome glass sapphire hawk along with Mrs. Vernon B. Stuffer's laster vase.

Mrs. Dale O. Miller, chairman of tickets suggest that guests stop at Mrs. Markley's Farm Nook for tickets or call any of her committee who are Mesdames Richard Ernest, Bruce Haase, Harry Wieting, Robert Murray and Carl Blauman.

ALL PROCEEDS from this auction will go to the Philanthropic and Building Funds of the Village Woman's Club. During 1959-60, the club made contributions to the Birmingham Community House, Baldwin Library, Camp Oakland, Foundation for the Emotionally Disturbed at Pontiac State, Scholarship Trust Fund established at MSU and the Child Guidance Clinic.

Mrs. Robert F. Watt, chairman of the ways and means committee, has appointed Mrs. Niel Tallmage chairman of the auction and her co-chairmen are Mrs. Reed Dewey and Mrs. Paul John.

THEY ARE assisted by Mesdames Brooks Marshall, George O. Miller Jr., ticket chairman; and (from left) Mrs. Robert Watt, ways and means committee; Mrs. H. J. Beam, selection chairman and Mrs. Langley Smart. The auction will be held May 6 at the L. E. Smart Sale Farm, Tiengen Road, Rochester.

MRS. WILLIAM H. LITTLE

houses. A Dior toque of swirled mauline in blending blue, long white kid gloves, blue slippers and a spray of pink cymbidium orchids clasped to her satin evening bag completed her costume.

Mrs. Little, the bridegroom's mother, wore graceful Alcon lace in mint green styled with sheath lines, portrait neckline and little sleeves. She wore a matching calico of pleated tulle, long white kid gloves and her flower accent of pale green cymbidium was also clasped to her evening bag.

A RECEPTION was held immediately following the ceremony at Oakland Hills Country Club. Following a three-day motor tour of Europe, the couple will be at home in Birmingham.

Josephine Royce, John M. Blakey To Wed in August

The engagement of Josephine Marjorie Royce to John Malone Blakey is announced by her mother, Mrs. Henry Burmiste Royce of North Glenhurst Drive, Birmingham. She is the daughter of the late Mr. Royce, a three-year motor tour of Europe, the couple will be at home in Birmingham.

The bride-elect attended Barat College of the Sacred Heart, Lake Forest, Ill. John graduated from the University of Michigan and is now studying medicine at U of M.

An August 12 wedding is planned at Holy Name Church. The reception will follow at Bloomfield Hills Country Club.

Birmingham Branch Of Wellesley Club To Honor Husband

On Friday evening, Mrs. John Campbell will open her Glenmary Road home for the Birmingham Wellesley Club's annual dinner meeting for husbands.

Assisting Mrs. Campbell as hostesses will be Mrs. Harvey J. White, Mrs. Jacques Passino, and Mrs. Robert A. Johnson, all of Birmingham, as well as Mrs. Alex F. O'Hare of Oak Park and Mrs. O. S. Reimold II of Pleasant Ridge.

The speaker of the evening is to be Charles Jordan, chief designer, Cadillac Studio, General Motors styling. He will be introduced by Mrs. John T. Suydam III, program chairman of the club.

YWCA Schedules Art-Treasure Sale

Unique among antique shows will be the Art and Treasure Sale at Northern YWCA, 13130 Woodward on May 2, 3 from 11 a. m. to 10 p. m. Mrs. Henry Brown of Orchard Lake together with Mrs. Ross Rupe of Bayou Drive, Bloomfield Hills are in charge of a Nearly New Clothing Show.

William Pittney of Birmingham, who is with the Wayne Liberal Arts Department and John Gibert of Cranbrook Academy will be showing a selection of their ceramics.

MRS. JOHN DYKSTRA

for her daughter celebrated her wedding anniversary and her brother-in-law marked a birthday the same day.

This quiet, soft-spoken grandmother of six is used to sharing, made the announcement.

SHE HAD to find just the right rib roast for a dinner for 10 guests. Naturally those around the table included family members,

Plan Fashion Show At Glen Oaks Club

The Women's Auxiliary of the North Farmington Little League, including the West Bloomfield group, will hold a fashion show Thursday at 8 p. m. at Glen Oaks Country Club.

Proceeds of the event, which includes music by the Ray Brandt Trio, door prizes and refreshments, will be donated to the North Farmington Baseball for Boys group.

Musical Program Planned for Meeting

The Note-Knockers, a group of musically talented young people from the Keyboard Workshop, is planning a dinner for their April meeting.

Nancy McIlwain of Endeavor Drive, president, is in charge of reservations for members, their parents and friends. The group will present a program of organ music following dinner.

Spring Sale Coming Up

Working on a spring exhibit of the Detroit League for the Handicapped in association with the Bloomfield Hills Garden Club are (from left) Mrs. John Sierrist of Harland Drive, Mrs. Alan Loofbourrow of Country Club Road and Mrs. John Schmidt of

Nancy Grey Jenkins Weds William Hugh Little

Wearing a cameo ivory peau de soie gown, Nancy Grey Jenkins became the bride of William Hugh Little Saturday in Kirk in the Hills Church in Bloomfield Hills.

Clusters of miniature pearls and crystals frosted the embroidered Alcon lace which etched a floral motif over the Empress bodice, styled with petal scalloped decollete and long, traditionally pointed sleeves.

A DOUBLE diadem of pearls and Alcon roses crowned her bouffant tiered veil of silk illusion cascading to fingertip length. She carried a crescent of stephanotis and English ivy.

Miss Jenkins is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Read Jenkins of Kenesee Court, Bloomfield Hills, and Mr. Little is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Luke M. Little of Inwood Circle, Bloomfield.

Mrs. Robert Read Jenkins of Birmingham, matron of honor, wore a white satin, bow-trimmed cord cap with halo veil. The bridesmaids were Barbara Jenkins, sister of the bride, Judith Melville of Ferndale and Julie Bush of Royal Oak.

THEY WORE identical caps in blue to match the embroidery on their dresses. All carried cascades of arrangements of feathered blue carnations, stephanotis and ivy.

John Osborne of Birmingham was best man. Seating the guests were Robert Read Jenkins, brother of the bride; Luke M. Little, Jr., brother of the groom, Donald Beaver of Des Moines, Ia., Louis Beaver of Kalamazoo, John Burleigh and Donald Willingham, both of Birmingham.

THE BRIDE'S mother was gown in porcelain blue peau de soie designed with distinctive silhouette.

A RECEPTION was held immediately following the ceremony at Oakland Hills Country Club. Following a three-day motor tour of Europe, the couple will be at home in Birmingham.

Josephine Royce, John M. Blakey To Wed in August

The engagement of Josephine Marjorie Royce to John Malone Blakey is announced by her mother, Mrs. Henry Burmiste Royce of North Glenhurst Drive, Birmingham. She is the daughter of the late Mr. Royce, a three-year motor tour of Europe, the couple will be at home in Birmingham.

Assisting Mrs. Campbell as hostesses will be Mrs. Harvey J. White, Mrs. Jacques Passino, and Mrs. Robert A. Johnson, all of Birmingham, as well as Mrs. Alex F. O'Hare of Oak Park and Mrs. O. S. Reimold II of Pleasant Ridge.

The speaker of the evening is to be Charles Jordan, chief designer, Cadillac Studio, General Motors styling. He will be introduced by Mrs. John T. Suydam III, program chairman of the club.

YWCA Schedules Art-Treasure Sale

Unique among antique shows will be the Art and Treasure Sale at Northern YWCA, 13130 Woodward on May 2, 3 from 11 a. m. to 10 p. m. Mrs. Henry Brown of Orchard Lake together with Mrs. Ross Rupe of Bayou Drive, Bloomfield Hills are in charge of a Nearly New Clothing Show.

William Pittney of Birmingham, who is with the Wayne Liberal Arts Department and John Gibert of Cranbrook Academy will be showing a selection of their ceramics.

Spring Fashions To Be Modeled At Cranbrook

Cranbrook Auditorium will be the scene May 10 when members of AAUW present their annual benefit fashion show and tea from 2-4 p. m. Committee members working on the event include (from left), Mrs. William R. Morgan, Mrs. Howard K. Berg and Mrs. Preston R. Weir. Summer fashions by Kay Cooley will be modeled by AAUW members. Serving on the ticket committee are Mrs. Arthur Burleigh and Mrs. W. R. DaLee.

To Demonstrate Crafts At School Art Show

Thirteen craftsmen will demonstrate their talents at the third annual Spring Gallery at City and Country School for Gifted Children, Bloomfield Hills.

The two-day show, open to the public, will be held on Saturday from 2 to 9 p. m. and on Sunday from 1 to 6 p. m. Proceeds from the sale of art objects will be used for the school's scholarship program.

The art demonstrations will include those of Mrs. John Hillberry at the potters wheel; Menden Westcott, leather tooling; Mrs. Gerald Schwartz, mosaic work; Mrs. Jack Ramsey, graphics, woodcuts, etchings, monoprint and serigraphy; Mrs. Caroline Halon, plaster block printing; Mike Grizzle, wood working; Mrs. Lorena Caris, glass sculpture; Mrs. Thekla Aronson, making jewelry; and Mrs. Herman J. Linn, weaving loom.

GUESTS WHO WISH to have a portrait or sketch made, will have an opportunity to "sit" for Mrs. Lane H. E. Lane.

The exhibiting artists are: Bob Diebold, John Glick, Glen Michaels, Raymond DeLoach, G. G. Palazzola, Irving Berg, Kinsey Calkins, Gene Kyle, Mary Riordan, John Smith, Milton Kennis, Harry Rupp and Barbara Dorr.

Others are Mrs. Cyril Miles, Jack Jarne, Eldon Barr, Tom Balzhazer, Carl Wegener, Roger Crapnell, Dorothy Sidal, Tom Brykalski, Lucy Brackets, Fry Wall, Rosemary Allen, Walter Lonako, Sophie Horien, Mike Vitzthum, Hardy Broderston and Clifford West.

High Action of Birmingham, designer, will display custom-designed

LWV Elects New President

Mrs. George N. Hiltfinger, 15969 Dunblaine, Birmingham, assumed her duties as newly elected president of the League of Women Voters at the annual meeting and luncheon at Devon Gables.

Mrs. Hiltfinger replaces Mrs. Evan Hanny, who led the local league in campaigning for the school millage increase and the Constitutional Convention.

AS TO THE activities for the coming year, Mrs. Hiltfinger says, "It now becomes necessary for the Birmingham League, in conjunction with the other leagues in the state to develop some specifics of constitutional revision. The four years of intense activity which have finally resulted in a convention, would be more than what if we did not take some active part in its deliberations."

Members elected to the board include Mesdames George Hiltfinger, Garwin Hawden, Lawrence Nicklin, John Ensign, Eugene Lorenz, Lee Spearin, James Atkinson, Brooks Marshall, John Vanderhoest, Charles Turner, Cleveland Walcutt, Albert Weintrich.

Leukemia Group To Meet in Berkley

Birmingham members of the Children's Leukemia Foundation of Michigan will hold its monthly general meeting Thursday at the Berkley room of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. The meeting will begin at 8:30 p. m.

The guest speaker will be Dr. Freeman M. Wilmer. His subject will be "The Causes and Treatment of Arseniasis."

A slate of nominees for officers will be determined for election purposes at the May general meeting. The public is invited to attend the meeting.

Off to Painsville

Melvin L. Whittle, producer and director of the Young Peoples Studio Theatre Guild, will be attending the Childrens Theatre Conference in Painsville, Ohio, on Friday. He is taking two of his professional students along with him: Susan Stoutler of Harmon Road and Marty Altire of South-lawn.

BIRTHS

A daughter, Leslie Ann, was born April 17 to MR. AND MRS. HARRY J. BAILEY of Maryland Boulevard, Birmingham. Mrs. Bailey is the former Marilyn Knight, daughter of Mrs. W. C. Knight of Colonial Court, Birmingham. Paternal grandparents are the Claude Baileys of Royal Oak.

A son, David Edward, was born April 17 to MR. AND MRS. LOUIS P. TRUESDELL of Plymouth. Mrs. Truesdell is the former Phyllis Abbott, daughter of the James Abbotts of Birmingham. Paternal grandparents are the Louis Truesdells of Plymouth.

Working on a spring exhibit of the Detroit League for the Handicapped in association with the Bloomfield Hills Garden Club are (from left) Mrs. John Sierrist of Harland Drive, Mrs. Alan Loofbourrow of Country Club Road and Mrs. John Schmidt of