Cuba, NO! That's the story for this coming Saturday when an international festival from 1 to 5 will turn Cranbrook house into a market with an old world setting. The event will be the grand finale of the AFS week here in our town. There will be sale booths, exhibits, and entertainment provided by AFS students who will perform the news and folk songs of their native lands.

Mrs. A. O. Thalacker is general chairman of the day. Mrs. George Romney and Mrs. James Carmel have served as chairmen of the week's activities.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Williams were hosts recently at a reception honoring 24 leading automotive executives and their wives from 11 European countries.

Have You Met . . .

The residents of 6767 White Pine Drive, they are Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Malmson, who moved here from Detroit. He is a senior copy writer with Campbell-Ewald Co. They have a daughter, Cindy Kay, 7. He is a member of Acacia Fraternity. Family hobbies are photography, literature, wood working and writing.

Birmingham Couple At Annual Meeting

Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Minnick, 1995 Crosswick Road, Birmingham, visited this week in Phoenix, Ariz.

They were guests at the Arizona Biltmore, scene of the annual meeting, April 23-26, of the Presidents' Club of Connecticut General Life Insurance Company.

Minninger, a member of this top prestige group for leading agents, is with the company's Detroit branch office.

Pokes at PTA

It will probably go down as one of the funniest mothers' days yet. We're referring to the May 14 evening of not so gentle satire with Mike Nichols and Elaine May which will be held at the Ferndale High School auditorium to benefit Camp Oakland. Mrs. Ben D. Mills is chairman and her assistant is Mrs. L. W. Newberry.

Don't put the top back on the sugar bowl. There is yet another benefit. (If this keeps up, we'll have to give one for ourselves pretty soon.) This ace event features the fabulous Eileen Farrell who will throw the first ball in the Birmingham Arts festival series June 4 at the Birmingham theater.

The concert will be the prelude to the eight-day affair—June 17 through 25, and Mrs. Ed Lerchen is in charge of tickets. If the hens have been laying well, and the egg money is rolling in you may achieve patron status and honor Miss Perrell at champagne reception following her performance, at Cranbrook house.

CADS?

YOU know there were a bunch of cads in town, didn't you? No, not THEM. We're referring to the Committee for Activities in the Dome (the geodesic dome to be erected in Spain park for the arts festival, of course) Talented Jean Coffin heads this group of resourceful localities, who are busy picking each others' brains in order to present a community program in the arts for everyone—long hair to brush cuts.

Dr. Richard Galpin, a well known authority on jazz, will again head the jazz festival segment of the BAP.

Famous artist and raconteur, Robert Thom is handling the art presentation. Morris Purdy is in charge of tickets. Mrs. William Chandler is handling publicity and Steve Booth heads promotion with Richard Forsyth Jr. as his assistant.

Colin John is in charge of program scheduling (booking) and his assistants are Robert Garrison and Mrs. Jack Klarr (hey, that's me) Wendover Holzworth heads the house committee and James Schneider and Fran Loud will be in charge of stage management.

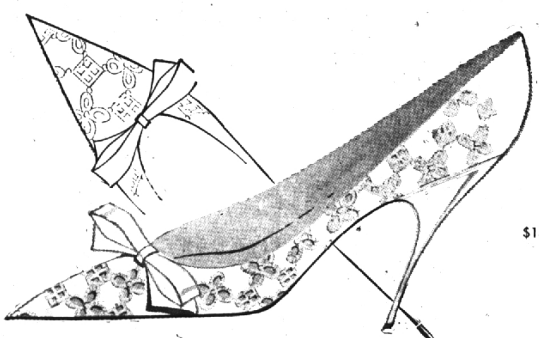

Other CADS are Tom Martin, W. E. Hazard, Hobart Munsell, John Abbinck, Bernard Bogue and Mrs. Fred Bahr.
