Franklin Area Boys To 'Play Ball' Soon

FRANKLIN — Shades of old Casey descended in numbers for two weekends as approximately 200 boys, ages eight to 12, swatted, fielded and leaved with everything they had to qualify in the Franklin Little Baseball League tryouts.

With league games for the eight teams scheduled to begin May 13, applicants for the Babe Ruth League, for boys 13 through 15, are due too. Tryouts to form the four team squads will be held May 13 and May 20 for boys living in the Franklin, Wing Lake, Bingham Farms and part of the Walnut Lake school areas.

Colorful tales of the Battle of Gettysburg will be told to Pack 16-1 sub scouts meeting tonight at Franklin school.

Dalton Lamb and W. W. Price of the Civil War Centennial committee will appear in the uniforms of the Confederate and Union armies.

It is expected they will have a number of authentic relics from this period of American history to show the boys.

Angela Dudson, 11-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Dudson of 14 Mile Road will spend her summer in Ireland as a delegate of the Michigan Council of Churches Youth for Understanding program. A junior at Kingswood, Angela will leave June 21 for her great-grandmother's homeland, although at present she does not know where she will be staying or anything about the "foster family" with whom she will live until mid-August.

During her absence, there'll be a great flurry at home. The Dudsons will be making arrangements

Boy scout Pancake Supper last Friday catered to about 200 ravenous diners, who packed the social hall of the Franklin Community Church.

Profiting from past experience, the long lines of family groups moved along rapidly and leaders were proud of the solicitous service expertly rendered by scouts.

Almost before the griddle cooled, they were organizing for the spring paper drive the Saturday Residents are asked to have stores of newspapers and magazines tied in bundles and placed in garages or breezeways for easy pick-up.

Crews will be stationed at the trailers on the village green all day to receive bundles from those who have the helpful inclination to bring their own collections.

Mr. and Mrs. George Donaldson Jr. of N. Greenbrier have just returned from a spring trip to New Orleans and Biloxi, Miss. The two-week holiday afforded them many a sight — seeing adventures and a chance to get in a few early rounds of golf.

Combining business with pleasure may be an old cliché but a nice way to spend a week in Florida. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rotliers of Tweed Drive left their newly seeded lawn in the care of Mother Nature and their two sons with proper loving supervision ahead for West Palm Beach. They are due home this Friday.

Similarly, the James Branstroms of Romany Way, have been relaxing and shopping on a work-vacation in North Carolina. Coming home this week, they'll find Mrs. Branstrom's sister, Mrs. O. C. Barrill of Grand Rapids has had a busy time of it managing things for them at the Franklin Interiors and looking after the Branstrom children.

Franklin School sixth graders have found a sweet way to get things done.

By selling 576 quarter-pound almond-filled chocolate bars to their school friends and neighbors, they have netted enough money to purchase a large display case for the lobby of the school.

Taking orders before Easter, the students of Mrs. Brundage's and Mr. Pokornowski's classes have recently delivered the goods and have enough orders to warrant another shipment of 288 bars.

The program will provide an appropriate place to display special class projects or trophies where everyone can see them.

Dr. and Mrs. Gerald Wright of Normandy held another of their charming Sunday night musicals, with a number of Mrs. Wright's piano pupils participating and their families comprising an appreciative audience, staying for supper afterwards.
