Bridegroom's Father Officiates at Wedding

First Presbyterian Church, Birmingham, was the scene Saturday afternoon of the wedding of Arlene Jane Adams and Robert Glenn Harris.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carman Adams of Fairfax, Birmingham. The groom's parents are Dr. and Mrs. W. Glenn Harris. Dr. Harris performed the rites, stephanotis and lilies of the valley.

Cynthia Adams, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a white mousseline de soie over maize taffeta dress with a three tier satin sash of yellow, topaz and emerald ending in a triple loop streamer, caught with a cluster of blending flowers. Her head-dress was of point d'esprit petals centered with flowers. Her bouquet was white album lilies and ivy.

MRS. R. G. HARRIS

BRIDESMAIDS were Carol Adams, sister of the bride; Mary Burkman and Myrna Mozley, all of Birmingham; Mrs. Phillip Jacobus, sister of the bridegroom of Grand Rapids; Marlene Coddington of Princeton, Ill., and Sally Ann Seifert of Crystal City, Mo. Their gowns matched that of the honor attendant.

Ennio Izzo of N. Bradock, Pa., attended the groom. Ushers were Fred Pinkenauer and Arthur Lake of Birmingham; David Dickie of Columbus, Ohio; William Gray of Wooster, Ohio; Phillip Jacobus of Grand Rapids and Hugh Ruffner of Westford, Pa.

FOR HER daughter's wedding, Mrs. Adams wore a café au lait linen sheath with lace inserts accented by embroidery and matching accessories. The groom's mother chose a beige silk linen sheath with contrasting accessories. Both mothers wore a corsage of spray orchids.

A reception at the church followed the ceremony.

For her wedding trip the new Mrs. Harris chose a Royal Blue Italian knit suit accented with blue and white shoes and a navy velvet hat.

The couple will make their home in Birmingham.

Beverly Hills Girl Married In Illinois

The chapel at Chanute Air Base, Kanton, Ill., was the scene Saturday of the wedding of Judith Glee Goetterman to Airman 1st Class Philip P. Marcotte. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Goetterman of Elizabeth, Beverly Hills. The groom is the son of Mrs. Helen Marcotte of Wolverine and the late Hubert Marcotte.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by Chaplain R. Miller.

The bride chose a white sheath of summer taffeta with bouffant butterfly overskirt accented with a flat Dior bow at the back. Her shoulder tip veil was attached to a headdress of three small Dior bows. She carried a Colonial bouquet of white roses and stephanotis and wore her grandmother's double-strand antique pearls.

ELAINE CULVER, cousin of the bride, was the honor attendant. She wore a pale yellow sheath with matching halo headdress and carried a Colonial bouquet of yellow roses.

The groom's cousin, Ted Marcotte of Wolverine was the best man. Mrs. Goetterman chose a powder blue silk sheath for her daughter's wedding. The groom's mother also wore a powder blue silk sheath. Both wore pink camellias.

A champagne supper at The Redwood, Pontouli, followed the wedding.

The couple will make their home near the air base.

S'field Rites Unite Couple

Carol Ann Corke became the bride of Douglas O. Lee Saturday afternoon in a double ring ceremony at the Southfield United Presbyterian Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Corke, of Whitefish, Lathrup. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Lee of Berkeley.

For her wedding, the bride chose a white lace and silk organza gown and a floral crown with elbow length veil. Her flowers were gardenias.

Joyce O'Brien of Bloomfield Hills was the honor attendant. Bridesmaids were Diane Dorland of Albion and the bridegroom's sister, Virginia Lee of Berkeley.

The honor attendant wore a white silk shantung sheath with a violet silk chiffon overskirt and matching satin belt and headress. She carried white daisies.

White sheaths worn by the bridesmaids were accented with powder blue and medium blue overskirts.

Victor Bell of Albion attended the bridegroom as best man. Seating the guests were the bridegroom's brother, Richard Lee, and Michael Graybill.

Mrs. Corke chose a pink silk organza sheath with matching accessories for her daughter's wedding. The bridegroom's mother wore an aqua lace sheath and matching accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of deep pink tea roses.

A garden reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the wedding. The couple will make their home at St. Clair shores.

Yamasaki Move Into Troy Home

Minoru Yamasaki and his bride, the former Peggy Watty, daughter of the Louis Wattys of San Francisco, are settling into their new home—a 140-year-old farmhouse in Troy.

The couple were married June 30 in Shelby, Mont., at the home of friends.

The famous architect and his wife are already making changes in the old house, combining two of the rooms into one.

Mrs. Yamasaki was a hospital administrator and took her degree in this field at Northwestern University in 1943. She interned in Chicago and has worked at hospitals in San Francisco and Berkeley, Calif.

SHE WAS ALSO A hospital consultant in California and Honolulu.

She viewed the new gas company building under construction in downtown Detroit—it was designed by her husband's firm—last week and has seen Wayne State campus buildings.

Now she is hoping Yamasaki will design a hospital.
