

There comes to every man and woman, some time or times in life, the sad news of the passing of a dear friend. The first shock, if it is sudden departure, generally is overcome when one appraises the values and the virtues of that friend. . . and would he not (were he alive) urge you not to weepfully mourn his going? Would he not (as perhaps would you) ask only that the happy hours be remembered?

The Birmingham Eccentric

BIRMINGHAM, MICHIGAN

Thursday, August 10, 1961

SECTION
C

Lt. and Mrs. L. B. Plant

Suburban Scene
By Shirley Adams
Society Editor

Birthday Belle
"Super" was the word for the sweet sixteen party for Nancy Judd on Wednesday night of last week at Oakland Hills Country Club. Midst streamers and balloons of mixed colors, some 60 girls and boys dined and danced to the music of the Faragon Orchestra.

Party with a Pacific Touch
Forest Lake Country Club members will dine and dance Saturday evening in club rooms decorated in the mood of Pacific and Caribbean. Guests will see touches of Hawaii, Tahiti, Hong Kong, Tokyo and island scenes, all keyed to the theme of "Adventures in Paradise."

Tiny Traveler
Little Debra Gollygoly chucked the last cross up on the calendar last Thursday, smoothed the clothes in her suitcase and took off on her first big trip with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Gollygoly of Birmingham.

Surprise Within a Surprise
A dual surprise party in Bloomfield Hills left the two guests of honor gasping on Thursday afternoon of last week. To set the record straight, four area hostesses planned a surprise miscellaneous shower for bride-to-be Susan Schaller.

Custom-Made Costumes
Teenage members of the Birmingham Athletic Club have planned a fun-event for Friday evening and have labeled it a "Crazy Dress Party." Outlandish garb in odd combinations will be the dress requirement for the occasion.

Wedding Belles
Newly married Lt. and Mrs. Lawrence Bruce Plant honored a tradition, observed by four of the bride's sisters at their weddings, when the couple left Holy Name Church in a horse-drawn Victoria carriage, following their Saturday morning wedding.

Club Seeks New Members
A newly formed organization in the metropolitan area is seeking Without Partners. It seeks to complement by group discussions, group-therapy meetings and coordinated parent-child activities.

Just Cruising Along
Debra Ann Gollygoly, 194 Witherspoon Birmingham, recently returned from a cruise aboard the S. S. Bahamas Star to near-by Nassau, overnight by ship from Nassau. Two days were spent on the swimming and shopping in Nassau.

From Horse 'n Buggy

Newly married Lt. and Mrs. Lawrence Bruce Plant honored a tradition, observed by four of the bride's sisters at their weddings, when the couple left Holy Name Church in a horse-drawn Victoria carriage, following their Saturday morning wedding.

Off to Reception

Wedding Belles

Area Women Feted At Interlochen

Several Birmingham area women were honored at National Federation of Music Clubs Weekend held at National Music Camp, Interlochen, Michigan, on Aug. 4, 5 and 6. Officers and State Committee Chairmen singled out for honor from this and nearby neighborhoods were:

MRS. RAYMOND Bees of Fernalde, Mrs. E. P. Davis of Royal Oak, Mrs. Fred Bradley of Highland Park, Mrs. Aaron Simmons of Tonton, Mrs. Frank W. Coolidge and Miss Camilla Ayers of Birmingham; Mrs. Phillip R. Flannery of Bloomfield Hills.

Cranbrook CC Goes Hawaiian

Members of Cranbrook Country Club in Cranbrook Village will present a Hawaiian luau Saturday evening. Co-chairmen of the event are Mrs. Charles Cresswhite and Mrs. Michael Rotenberg. They've enlisted Mrs. A. Robert Maasnick Jr. to lend her artistic touch to the authentic decorations around the swimming pool.

Horseless Carriage Takes Newlyweds To Wedding Reception

Following their wedding at 12:30 Saturday afternoon, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Jan Lutomski rode from Holy Name Church to the reception in a two-tone blue, 1932 Packard Phaeton. The classic car was driven by its owner, Robert Jojnt of Smallwood, Beverly Hills.

The bride's mother chose a Harvey Bern lime green sheath of chiffon and chantilly lace for her daughter's wedding. The mother of the bridegroom wore champagne chiffon with almonac lace bodice.

Poolside Scene of Safari

Guests from near and far who are members of the Circumnavigators Club gathered at the J. D. Richardson's home on N. Glengarry Road, Bloomfield Village, for a South Seas Safari Sunday.

HER shoulder-length illusion veil was attached to a crown of seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white bouffant French roses with sprigs of ivy.

KARL F. LUTOMSKI was his brother's best man. Guests were seated by William G.

MRS. GEISLER chose a lilac silk organza sheath with a lace bodice for her daughter's wedding. The groom's mother wore a silk chiffon sheath of dusty rose.

A breakfast and garden reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony.

Cranbrook CC Goes Hawaiian

Members of Cranbrook Country Club in Cranbrook Village will present a Hawaiian luau Saturday evening.

MRS. DONALD FISHER, Mrs. Paul Harnaby, Mrs. Alex Sinclair, Mrs. Theodore Gerak, Mrs. Donald Hunt, Sally McClanathan, Mrs. David Pittenger and Mrs. Maasnick.

Sorority Alumnae To Honor Members

Kappa Alpha Theta Alumnae Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Richard Sharpe, 200 Canterbury, Bloomfield Hills, on Wednesday evening at 7:30.

Poolside Scene of Safari

Guests from near and far who are members of the Circumnavigators Club gathered at the J. D. Richardson's home on N. Glengarry Road, Bloomfield Village, for a South Seas Safari Sunday.

HER shoulder-length illusion veil was attached to a crown of seed pearls and she carried a bouquet of white bouffant French roses with sprigs of ivy.

KARL F. LUTOMSKI was his brother's best man. Guests were seated by William G.