

Statistics are not available on the millions of hours wasted or lost every day in America, because people fail to be on time for previously made appointments. Not only is time lost forever, but who knows how much personal irritation, piqette, even out-spoken ill-feelings result? To be sure, now and then one cannot avoid "not being on time." But for the chronic violator, reasonable excuses are hard to accept.

Dinner Party Honors Guest from England

BLOOMFIELD VILLAGE—Mr. and Mrs. Emore F. Wollering of Yarmouth Road gave a family dinner party Sunday in honor of Mrs. Wollering's cousin, Jillian Thunder of Bournemouth, England.

Miss Thunder will be visiting the Wollering's until September when she will go to Alaska for a month. She will then return to the Wollering's for a short stay before going home to England.

Having a class reunion at her home on Tuesday was Mrs. John S. Nichols of Williamsburg Road. Some 30 nurses who graduated from Highland Park General Hospital during the years 1931-33 were present at the luncheon.

One of the alumnae, Mrs. Harry Aaron of Battle Creek, was a houseguest of the Nichols for a few days.

LOCHSLEA—Mr. and Mrs. James Miles of Apple Lane and their five children will be moving to Atlanta, Ga. within the next few weeks. Miss is now merchandise manager for J. P. Allen and Co. in Atlanta.

GILBERT LAKE—Lurray Pister, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pister of Gilbert Lake Road, is giving a houseguest this week. Her guest is Mary McFadden of Nashville, Tenn. Both

Constance Zekit Wed In Evening Ceremony

Constance Anne Zekit became the bride of Gary Richard Murphy on Saturday evening at the Unitarian Church, Detroit. The Rev. Scott Mitchell performed the double-ring ceremony in the presence of 150 guests.

The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Zekit of Bird Avenue, Birmingham. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard S. Murphy of Saginaw.

The bride wore a gown of white silk organza with scoop neckline and short-sleeved bodice with appliques of Alencon lace. The princess waist extended into a full floor length skirt with back bow. Her Juliet cap of white organza, embroidered with tiny pearls, was attached to a waist-length veil of silk illusion. She carried a cascade arrangement of white roses.

HER HONOR attendant was Jane Adams Sapala of Birmingham. Bridesmaids were the groom's sister, Gail F. Murphy of Saginaw; and two country sisters of the bride, Bonnie Blackstock of Sault Ste. Marie and Mrs. Robert A. Elbert of Detroit.

The attendants were gowned in yellow silk organza over yellow tulle with scoop necklines, short sleeves and full skirts. Their head-dresses were small crowns of matching material with short veils. They carried cascade bouquets of yellow miniature roses with lily.

The best man was James Martin Apple of Saginaw. Guests were seated by Ronald Meyers and Raymond Graham, both of Saginaw; Kenneth Murphy of Bloomfield Hills, brother of the groom; and David Dipple of Jackson, a fraternity brother of the groom.

MRS. ZEKIT chose a green lace sheath with matching silk organza cummerbund and a matching accessories for her daughter's wedding. The groom's mother wore a brown and white cyclone sheath with white accessories. Both mothers wore white orchids.

Following the wedding, a buffet dinner and reception were held at Bonifer Inn.

For her wedding trip to northern Michigan, the bride chose an aqua plaid suit with sheath skirt and short jacket with three-quarter length sleeves. Her accessories matched her suit.

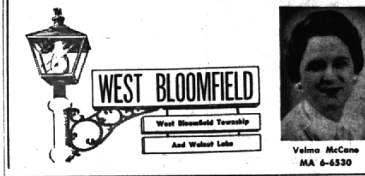

The couple will make their home in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Degrees Awarded To 4 Area Students

Four area students participated in the 10th annual Eastern Michigan University Summer Convocation on July 24.

Beth A. Fetrow and Nancy Lee Woydak, both of Birmingham, received BS degrees and elementary teaching provisional certificates.

Alfred Walter Phillips of Bloomfield Hills received a secondary teaching provisional certificate and Southern resident Neima A. Kanner received a master of arts degree in education.

Mom, Crew of Five Trek South by Wagon

"Confidence in yourself and in your car is all you need for a trip to Georgia with five children. However, a good disposition helps to ease the frequent stops."

Very recently Mrs. Mack Pittard of Old Orchard Drive loaded Penny, 14; Chip, 12; Lee, 6; Jan, 4; and Jon, 3, into the family station wagon and headed for Atlanta, where they spent four weeks with Mrs. Pittard's parents.

The destination was Kirkland, Ontario, where they were houseguests of Major and Mrs. William Braun.

On July 28 the Kenneth Crumb family returned to their home on Ballentree Drive. They left on the 13th, touring northern Ontario, camping along the way and fishing.
