

Hawaiian Guests Enjoy All-American Cook-Out

FRANKLIN WOODS — A good old fashioned hamburger and hot-dog cook-out was held Saturday at Gordon Higley's on Pickering Road. The Higleys entertained Mrs. William Hole and her children, Barbara, 6, and Billy, 7. The Hole family was enroute to Chicago from Hawaii and, since this was their first trip to the States, they were introduced to hamburgers and hot-dogs.

Other guests included Mrs. Hole's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William O'Daniel Sr., and brother William Jr., of Birmingham. The Senior O'Daniels are visiting here from St. Petersburg, Fla.

Recently the Higleys and their children Russell, 14, Candy, 12, and Gordie, 10, spent over three exciting weeks in Florida at Orlando and Silver Springs and also at Fruitland Park with Mrs. Higley's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. James Shepherd. They visited the Miami Maid Machine factory, Mrs. Higley's mother, Mrs. Merton, also lives in Fruitland.

MEADOWLAKE — Mr. and Mrs. Joe LaPlant, Meadowlake Road, returned July 30 from a northern Michigan vacation. One week was spent touring the state and the upper peninsula and the second week was spent at their summer home at East Tawas.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Danahey and Mr. and Mrs. Robbie Robinson were guests of the La Plants.

Listello-Ellis Wedding Takes Place in Detroit

Bonnie Lynne Listello became the bride of James Norman Ellis in a candlelight ceremony at Oster Drive Lutheran Church on Saturday.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. John Listello of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. Norman J. Ellis of Birmingham.

The bride chose a gown of pearl and silk with a long train and carried white baby mums with deep blue delphinium.

Richard Moxley of Birmingham was the best man, guests were MRS. JAMES N. ELLIS seated by Lawrence Charnault of Los Angeles, Calif. With Douglety of Toledo, Ohio, William Dwyer of Madison Heights, and Stanley of Farmington of Birmingham. Assisting the ushers were Thomas Listello and Robert Ellis, brothers respectively of the bride and groom.

THEY WORE four-eked, gowns of blue organza over taffeta with scoop necklines and pill-length sleeves, matching veils with well-known Oriental stoicism — he's a Chinese pug.

Four June high school graduates will be the honor guests when St. Bede's Tea Club holds its annual dance at Twin Beach Country Club Saturday from 7 to 11:30 p.m.

Kathy Ofenstein, Dan Jakovich, Gary Kolody, and Bob Stout are the "grads" and with their fellow club members they will enjoy the "stag or drag" event which will be a dressy party, according to club president Grant Saitmore, 27170 Johnnycake Lane, Southfield.

Grant and Mrs. Edmund Viale, 27270 Lathrup Blvd., Lathrup, may be contacted for reservations. Today is the deadline.

The John McElroy's of Rackham spent a week's holiday at Paris, Ill., with Mrs. McElroy's aunt and followed this with a visit with a week at a cottage at E. Tawas, one of their favorite vacation spots.

According to Mother, the four children were in the water constantly. They are Jack, 13; Jan, 12; Kathy, 10 and Tim, 8.

Rain Fails to Dampen Camping Enthusiasm

LATHRUP — "Came to try it another time," the William G. Forbes family of San Diego Drive report they enjoyed their recent week of camping, despite lack of cooperation from the weather man.

Arriving at Harrisville, they were greeted by rain so moved to Interlochen to find it raining there also. The sun peeked out for about a day and a half all told; the remainder of their week was damp, to say the least.

Nevertheless, their four daughters loved it. They are Kristi, 12, Nancy, 11, Terry, 6, and Lorrie, 4. Oh yes, the family dog, Kris, took the whole business with well-known Oriental stoicism — he's a Chinese pug.

From further north, Dr. and Mrs. Quentin Hamilton sparked their month-long stay at their cottage at Bala in the Muskoka district, Ontario with a most unusual motor boat jaunt. Their four-day trip took them down the Trent System Canal and through some 36 locks — all in all they covered some 175 miles.

With their three youngsters: Owen, 12; Bill, 11; and Gregg, 7, the Hamiltons also enjoyed visits from Kansas City, Fairfield, Conn. They are Kristi, during their lake idyll.

Little League in Lathrup wound up its season with Indians winning over the Yankees for the championship, Indian coaches are W. Wuestefeld and Ernest Hodas; manager is Walter Baughman Jr.

The Yankee team is coached by William Provencher with James Olson as manager.

Other stalwarts who have worked with the boys this summer are Webb Owen, manager, and Earl Harringer and Mike Peterson, coaches of the Tigers.

Then there are Red Sax coaches Chuck Stanton and Tom Dubucque with Barney Ilich as manager.

SOUTHFIELD — The last teen dance for this summer, held by the Southfield parking lot inside of the weather suggests it.

The musical program will be conducted by Harry McCreary of WXYZ. A slight change will admit any Southfield or Lathrup residents and their guests. Some 1200 teenagers attended the second teenagers attended the parties are obviously successful.

Jane Harriet Dashiell Weds Johannes Schwar

Ascension Lutheran Church in Birmingham was the scene Saturday afternoon for the marriage of Jane Harriet Dashiell and Johannes Friedrich Schwar. The Rev. E. W. Nuelken performed the 3 o'clock ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. G. F. Dashiell of Beverly Road, Birmingham. Her husband is the son of the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. I. F. Schwar of Frankfort, Cape Union of South Africa.

THE BRIDE was attired in a white street length shantung gown designed with a scoop neck-
