Saturday Ceremony Unites Local Couple

Sandra Lee De Vos was united in marriage Saturday to Lawrence Joseph Landry at the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, Birmingham. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Hazel Erdman De Vos of Bloomfield Township and George C. De Vos of Royal Oak. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Rosario Landry of Bloomfield Township.

The Rev. Theodore Waggener performed the ceremony. The bride's gown was of silk organza with a chapel length train and she wore a tiered veil. Her flowers were a colonial bouquet of miniature white roses.

Her maid of honor, Helen Lamont wore a lavender sheath with a matching overskirt and a Dior bow headdress.

THE BRIDESMAIDS wore pink gowns of the same style as that of the honor attendant. All the attendants carried sweetheart roses and blue bachelor buttons. The attendants were Karleén De Vos, the bride's sister; Diane McNulty and Judy Tassie.

William Laughlin served as best man. Ushers were the bride's brother, George De Vos; Michael Manore, cousin of the bridegroom and Dennis Dreher, cousin of the bride.

MRS. LAWRENCE J. LAUDRY

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. De Vos chose a royal blue taffeta sheath with matching coat and accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a turquoise sheath of silk organza. Both mothers wore white orchids.

A reception at the BPOE Hall, Royal Oak, followed the ceremony. The couple are visiting Mackinac Island on their wedding trip.
