

Summer Get-Together

Chatting at a recent brunch at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Hatch of Henhawk Road, Birmingham, are (from left) Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Jones of Cranbrook Road, Bloomfield Hills, and out-of-town guests Adolph Krauses of Rockford, Mich. Twenty couples attended the Sunday brunch.

Birmingham-Bloomfield Hills Society Notes

By JOYCE KLARR
MI 6-1358

Do you know who was voted the most courageous woman of the year by one of our leading fashion magazines? Famous interior decorator, Melaine Kabane won the award and you'll never guess why! Because she was the first woman to put pink and orange together in a room! Wouldn't our pioneering great grandmothers snuff over that one...bravery indeed!

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Morgan, Jr. of Seattle were the house guests of Mrs. R. S. Plexico recently. During their visit they were entertained at a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Holart. The Holarts recently announced the engagement of their daughter, Barbara to the Morgan's son, William Christopher Morgan III.

Pool Days

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Dodds entertained 60 of their friends at supper around their pool.

Junior Goodwill committee members for their autumn market had a poolside meeting at the Turtle Lakes Farm home of Mrs. Robert N. Green, Co. Chairman, Mrs. H. J. Altick and Mrs. James T. Barnard announced that this year's market will run from Nov. 12 through 18.

Future Furor

Two of our towns most distinguished citizens, the Harry Winstons, well known for their famous collection of abstract art, are leading lights in a fall program slated for the institute of arts. The program entitled "Futureism" is designed for those of us who wish to know more about modern art (I love it, but I've never been able to decide which end goes up). There is to be an exhibition, six lectures, a seminar and a tour of the Winston's home to view their collection.

Think Pink

Mr. and Mrs. Norman H. Berry, Jr. (she was the former Mary Patricia Baker of Birmingham) announce the birth of a daughter, Patricia Elaine in New York.

Welcome Home

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Eckhout and Mr. and Mrs. Vincent E. Hayes traveled to New York to meet their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McGinnis who have just returned from their movie making sojourn in Europe.

Mrs. W. D. Buick had at her houseguests, her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Raymond of St. Johns, Mich.

98 year old, Dr. J. E. Betteis has returned to his home at Salen, Ind., after a visit with his daughter and son-in-law, the Arthur B. Titons.

Returnees

Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Kramer former B'hamites who now live in Santa Barbara, Calif., have returned to town for a visit accompanied by their daughters Mary Jane and Patricia. Mrs. P. H. Hamly honored them at a luncheon last Tuesday and the Leroy Vandevoss's have scheduled a dinner for them at the Boat club on the 23rd.

The William R. Tracys have rented a home in Birmingham for

Paula Hughes To Wed in Fall

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hughes of Sheridan Drive, Birmingham, announce the engagement of their daughter, Paula, to James C. Presser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight W. Presser of Detroit.

Miss Hughes will graduate Sept. 1 from Henry Ford School of Nursing. Her fiancé will graduate Saturday from the University of Michigan with a BA degree in Speech and English.

A Sept. 30 wedding is planned at the Methodist Church in Birmingham.

PAULA HUGHES

Have You Met...

Mr. and Mrs. P. James Carolin of 3171 Topper Court? They moved from Pleasant Ridge on May 30. He is a manufacturers agent. They have six children. They are members of Oakland Hills Country Club and Lost Lake Woods Club. Family hobbies are golf, swimming, hunting and fishing.

Makes All-A List

A total of 155 Michigan State University students made the all-university all-A list during the spring term of this year. Local students are Monte Alkire of Orchard Lake, Constance Gontor of Birmingham and Campbell Moore of Southfield. They will be feted fall term at a dinner held by University President J. A. Hannah.

Kingswood Alumnae Name Officers

At a recent meeting of the Kingswood Alumnae Association, officers of the board of directors were named for the 1961-62 year. Elected president was Mrs. William D. Siebert, 912 Bates St., Birmingham. Vice-president is Mrs. Charles F. Delbridge, 412 Hanna St., also of Birmingham.

Mrs. John Lovett, Jr., 1011 Orchard Ridge Road, Bloomfield, was named recording secretary and corresponding secretary is Mrs. Bruce Craig, 4064 W. Orchard Hill Drive, Birmingham. Marcia Kelly, 266 Woodberry Dr., Bloomfield Hills is the new treasurer.

The first mile of concrete road in the world was laid in 1908 on Woodward Avenue from Six Mile Road to Seven Mile Road.

There's hope and there's help for the victims of Cerebral Palsy. It can strike any child. The Detroit Cerebral Palsy Center will help any child—thanks to your Thrift Drive contributions.

Demery's

DETROIT - BIRMINGHAM

Dear Friend:

A memorable event is about to occur . . . Demery's "50TH ANNIVERSARY" celebration!

Five decades of serving customers with top-quality merchandise sensibly priced, with friendly service, now culminates in this great money-saving event.

On MONDAY, AUGUST 21st, our "50th ANNIVERSARY SALE" opens for you, our customers, with a special "Preview Day" — a chance to select fall fashions, back-to-school needs, home necessities, anticipated gifts, etc., a day prior to the general selling event.

It's our Birthday — but YOU get the presents! Our gifts to you will be extraordinary values in fresh, just-unpacked merchandise, at prices we feel will be most pleasing to you.

An outstanding feature of this event will be our "50 GOLDEN VALUES", (one for each year) specially selected items at unusual savings. Both stores will offer hundreds of brand-new items during this event — a Golden Opportunity to Buy More for Less!

Shop early MONDAY, AUG. 21st — benefit by making early selections — PLUS the extra savings of S&H Green Stamps.

I hope to meet you on this special day.

Cordially,

President

FOR YOUR CONVENIENCE — BOTH STORES WILL REMAIN OPEN EVERY NIGHT NEXT WEEK (Aug. 21 - 26th) UNTIL 8:45 P.M.

Village Nursery School & Kindergarten

31195 W. 13 MILE

MA 6-3020 MA 6-2790

Twenty-first year specializing in early child development. Four certified teachers assisted by dancing instructor and two other adults. Transportation available.

ROSENTHAL CHINA

Maria White — all white china with an embossed edge — beautiful — durable.

5 pc. place setting $11.95

Many unusual open stock items available

Pontiac Pottery

Michigan's Largest Dinnerware Specialty Store

NORTH END OF MIRACLE MILE SHOPPING CENTER ON TELEGRAPH ROAD

Telephone PE 2-8642

Future Furor

Two of our towns most distinguished citizens, the Harry Winstons, well known for their famous collection of abstract art, are leading lights in a fall program slated for the institute of arts. The program entitled "Futureism" is designed for those of us who wish to know more about modern art (I love it, but I've never been able to decide which end goes up). There is to be an exhibition, six lectures, a seminar and a tour of the Winston's home to view their collection.

Think Pink

Mr. and Mrs. Norman H. Berry, Jr. (she was the former Mary Patricia Baker of Birmingham) announce the birth of a daughter, Patricia Elaine in New York.

Welcome Home

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Eckhout and Mr. and Mrs. Vincent E. Hayes traveled to New York to meet their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McGinnis who have just returned from their movie making sojourn in Europe.

Returnees

Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Kramer former B'hamites who now live in Santa Barbara, Calif., have returned to town for a visit accompanied by their daughters Mary Jane and Patricia. Mrs. P. H. Hamly honored them at a luncheon last Tuesday and the Leroy Vandevoss's have scheduled a dinner for them at the Boat club on the 23rd.

The William R. Tracys

have rented a home in Birmingham for

OPEN 9:30 TO 5:00 DAILY
MONDAYS UNTIL 8:30

AUGUST FUR SALE

Natural Ranch Mink Wrap
$1,150

The newest for fall . . . the wrap . . . with accent on the sunburst back . . . at August savings too . . . other wraps from $595.

PRICES INCLUDE ALL TAXES

Dittrich

2341 Grand River at Vernor W0 1-9100

Customer Parking Lot Adjacent
Responsibility by the Ditttrich family since 1893
For Products Labeled to Show Country of Imported Furs

Young Flair

Stockings made for the young fashion maker . . . at her price

Handy Parse Pack for instant stockings. Free with each box.

Demery's

DETROIT - BIRMINGHAM

These wonderfully, wispily sheer nylons insist on wearing beautifully — and are priced exactly as you want! All day in the office or after 5, "Young Flair" cling softly, fit even the thinnest legs to perfection. Seven heavenly fall colors with just-right seams or not a seam in sight. And so nice for your budget — "Young Flair" are only $1.00 a pair!