

Mary Bryant Weds Robert B. Ellery

Mr. and Mrs. James G. Bryant of Port Huron announce the June marriage of their daughter, Mary Winifred, to Robert Brigham Ellery of W. Brown Street, Birmingham.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Victor and grandson of the William R. Edwards of Franklin.

The newlyweds will attend the University of Michigan this fall. School and Mary attended Kingswood and Port Huron High School.

MRS. ROBERT B. ELLERY

Wedding Solemnized In Lutheran Church

Holy Cross Lutheran Church was the scene Saturday evening for the marriage of Ellen Louise Schreiber and Raymond Albert Frederick Voss. The Rev. A. W. Born performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of 250 guests.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Herbert George Schreiber of Sunnyside Drive, Lathrup Village, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond August Voss of East-Lake, Birmingham.

GIVEN IN marriage by her father, Ellen wore a white silk bombazine gown designed with a basque waistline, scoop neckline adorned with sequins and long lace sleeves with pointed cuffs.

A crystal crown secured her full length veil. She carried a cascade of gladiolus and ivy with yellow-throated white orchid corsage.

Honor attendant was Mrs. Floyd Krogenow of New Haven, Conn. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Richard Slavik of Strongsville, Ohio, and Sandra Voss of Birmingham.

THEY WERE attired in white silk organza over matching taffeta dresses designed with scoop-necklines and cap sleeves. Matching white flat bows secured their short circular veils. Their flowers were white asters with blue and white ribbon leaves and ivy.

Fred H. Miller of Dayton, Ohio, stood as best man and ushers were Herbert Schreiber Jr. of San Jose, Calif., Dennis Dahlmann of Ann Arbor, Philip Sotiroff of Dearborn

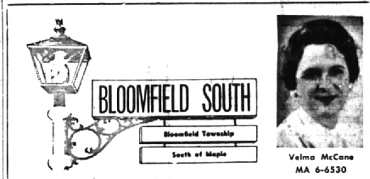

MRS. RAYMOND VOSS and Douglas Road of Birmingham.

FLOWER GIRL was Linda Schreiber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert G. Schreiber Jr., of San Jose, Calif.

The bride's mother wore a sheath with scoop neckline and cap sleeves in peacock blue organza over taffeta with matching organza overskirt. Mrs. Voss selected a champagne chantilly lace dress over white taffeta in princess style. Both mothers had yellow-throated orchid corsages.

FOLLOWING the 7 o'clock ceremony, a reception was held at the American Legion Hall in Royal Oak.

The bride wore a two piece white and canary yellow cotton knit dress with white accessories for her wedding trip to California. They will make their home in Birmingham.

Surprise Birthday Fete Honors AFS Student

OAKLAND HILLS — Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Runge of Mt. Vernon entertained with a surprise birthday party for their foster son, Arnd Veneman, an exchange student from the Netherlands. Arnd has been in this country for almost a year under the sponsorship of the Michigan Council of Churches and the Warren Michigan Rotary Club, of which Runge is president.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Schuster and their son Ted of Warren with whom Arnd made his home when his first arrival last August, and the couple to Detroit from the Netherlands, Willem Von Weller.

The dinner was topped with a birthday cake in the Dutch national colors.

Arnd returned to his homeland Aug. 10 and will enter the University of Delft in September.

FRANKLIN WOODS — Dr. and Mrs. Donald Marsh of Pickering Road returned Aug. 6, after a week's stay in New York City. Dr. Marsh attended conferences at Columbia University, representing Wayne State University.

They attended the new comedy "Mary, Mary" at the Helen Hayes Theatre and enjoyed eating at French, Italian and Hungarian restaurants and enjoying the different cuisines.

MEADOWLAKE — The Wilfred Dierlamm are happiest when they are entertaining their many friends in their lovely home on Valley Spring Drive.

Two dinner parties in one week is not an unusual thing in the Wilfred Dierlamm household on Valley Spring Drive. Last week they entertained at cocktails and cocktail. The guest list included Mrs. Zoe Copeland, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fulton, Mr. and Mrs. Stan Voorheis, Mr. and Mrs. James La Plant and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Danahy.

Because of the weather Mrs. Dierlamm switched a planned cocktail to a formal buffet with cocktails. The guest list this time included Mrs. Zoe Copeland, Mrs. Hazel Welsh, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Copeland, Mr. and Mrs. Mike D. Matten, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Habrie and Mr. and Mrs. William Joyner.

Big plans for the "best ever" annual ice cream social are being planned by the Ladies Auxiliary of Meadowlake Association.

This year it will be held Sept. 10 on Ancher Island with Mrs. Jack Suyam as general chairman. A full program is assured including a puppet show, boat rides, a variety of games and refreshments.

WESTCHESTER — On August 22 Mrs. Eugene Mueller will open her home on Cranbrook Road to all the ladies who have signed up for the bowling league. The new rules and regulations will be under discussion.

Have You Met . . .

The residents of 2625 Vhay Lane? Mr. and Mrs. Loren Gaumer moved from Arcadia, Calif., on June 26. He is an engineer with Jerus B. Webb Co. of Detroit. They have two sons, Robert and James.

CAROLYN ANDERSON Completes Training

The ceremony was held at the First Congregational Church, Oak Park, Aug. 11 with 89 young women graduating. The candidates became registered professional nurses on successfully passing the State Board examination.

Westwood Manor Plans Annual Picnic at Beach

WESTWOOD MANOR — Westwood Manor Association will hold its annual pot-luck picnic Saturday evening at the Westwood Manor beach area. For entertainment there will be music and dancing. Planning the picnic was Mrs. Edward Pappert, chairman. Mrs. Ed-

Robert Kuschna, Mrs. Ralph Hessler, Mrs. Sam Higberger and Mrs. Thomas Peters.

WESTWOOD MANOR — Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pappert of Kelly Road have been busy entertaining houseguests. Last week Dr. and Mrs. William Bartran of Pittsburgh, Pa. and their two children were guests of the Papperts. This week Mrs. Pappert's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Brine of Pittsburgh, Pa. are visiting them.

DEVON HILLS — Recently returning from an Eastern motor trip were Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Grovogl of N. Pemberton and their daughters, Bonnie and Barbara. They traveled to Montreal, Quebec, Maine, Boston and Cape Cod. They spent a few days at each point of interest to them. The Grovogl's return route was through Connecticut and New York states. They were gone for two weeks.

GILBERT LAKE — Having houseguests last week for a few days were Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Wright of Pon Valley. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kennedy of St. Petersburg, Fla.

Friday, Mrs. Wright's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Paul of Owatonna, Minn. and their two children arrived for a four-day visit at the Wrights.

Ronald Ballantyne of E. Millerway recently returned from a vacation in Northern Michigan. They spent 10 days at Menominee Beach Club at Petoskey.

The Ballantynes and their three children spent last weekend visiting Mrs. Ballantyne's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Booth at their summer cottage on Tipisco Lake.

POXCROFT — Recently returning from Silver Springs, Md., were Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Fuller of Crabtree Road and their two children, Vicki and Dianna. Fuller drove his family to Maryland, to visit Mrs. Fuller's mother, Mrs. Florence Ray of Silver Springs. They stayed a few days then returned home.

Mrs. Fuller and the children visited her mother for a month. After which Fuller returned to bring his family home.

At Camp Cavell

Dawn Martin, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Martin of E. Maple Road, Birmingham, is attending the four session at Camp Cavell. She will return to Birmingham Friday.
