

Holiday Highlight Is Trip to Tahquamenon

BRAES—All of the Brooks family, Norma, Art, Brian and Christine, spent three weeks at a cottage at Burt Lake with several groups of friends.

Christine and Brian had fun sailing, fishing, and swimming; the young fry thrilled at the sight of deer and black bear, and the trip to the Tahquamenon Falls was also a highlight.

Brian, while at Camp Barokel, made "summer" the first day and also won a canoe race.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Irwin, daughter Gini and son Andy as well as Gini's guest, Jim Edgar of Grand Rapids, visited the Adirondacks for two and one-half weeks recently.

Their guests also included Mrs. Irwin's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. William Watson of Livonia and their two sons. The family also visited Irwin's mother, Mrs. Curtis J. Irwin of Utica, N.Y.

Adopted and adorable, Kathi, age 4, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Koskies of Westmoor Drive has longed for a baby brother. The "series" was filled and 2½ month-old baby Kevin has come to live with the Koskies.

On Thursday night, next-door neighbor Mrs. Wendell Lloyd had a shower for Mrs. Koskies and Kevin. Guests were Mrs. Robert Wells, Mrs. George McIntyre, Mrs. H. D. Pascock, Mrs. Mack Pittard, Mrs. James Birnie and Mrs. Curt Whittlesey. Others were Mrs. Art Brooks, Mrs. William Lutz, Mrs. B. Campbell, Mrs. Lynn Barber, Mrs. Frank Young, and Mrs. Koskies' mother, Mrs. Paul Benton, who is visiting here from Ormand Beach, Fla.

Paul Dahl and Mr. and Mrs. George Macheck, neighbors and close friends, recently took separate trips to northern Michigan.

The Dahls took a four-day trip; the Machecks, along with Mrs. Macheck's mother, Mrs. Rudolph Vistorsky, toured Bond Falls and the Tahquamenon Falls. After their return, both couples went on the Aquanara trip to Cleveland.

Mrs. Macheck entertained a host of "city" friends at a cook out after the latter trip. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Ang Canters, Mr. and Mrs. Chuck Simon, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Simon, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schamanek, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Matoneck and Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Loch.

Others were Mr. and Mrs. George Novotny, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brumo, Mr. and Mrs. Bud Montre and Mrs. Dan De Laby.

The group have been friends for 20 years and have bowled together for 10 years.
