

Gloria Irene Wiltse Weds Walter Eugene Dunbar, Jr.

In the presence of 360 guests, Gloria Irene Wiltse became the bride of Walter Eugene Dunbar Jr., July 5 at Westray Methodist Church in Pontiac. The ceremony was performed at 2 o'clock.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wiltse of Pontiac. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dunbar of Berkshire Drive, Birmingham.

THE BRIDE appeared in a floor length gown of chantilly lace and tulle over taffeta. It was designed with a scalloped neckline, long fitted bodice. Her hairdress was a scalloped crown of chantilly lace outlined with pearls. Her bridal bouquet was white carnations centered with an orchid corsage.

Percy Bennett of Pontiac was honor attendant and bridesmaids were Mrs. Carroll Tucker, Dee Ann Dunbar and Nancy Wiltse was junior bridesmaid.

THEY WERE attired in orchid dresses featuring matching boleros and headpieces were scalloped crowns with circular veils.

Joy Lynn Tucker, flower girl, was dressed in white lace accented with pink rosebuds at the waistline and neckline. She wore a bonnet of lace and pink ribbons with pink rosebuds.

Dean Craig stood as best man and ushers were David Wiltse, Dale Wiltse, Jack Layson, Arthur Whipple and Steven Dunbar.

FOR HER daughter's wedding, Mrs. Wiltse chose a pastel blue brocade dress with matching accessories.

3-Week Tour Takes Local Boy to Alaska

NORTH ADAMS—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pavlus and sons Jerry, Pat and Bob of Lenthil Drive have returned from their vacation, visiting Philadelphia, Pa., the battle grounds at Gettysburg and Washington, D.C.

On their return home, 11-year-old Pat, repaired his bag and joined eight other boys and their friend and guide, Edward Kuhn of Lake Angelus, for a three-week-trip to Alaska. They traveled by train through the Canadian Rockies; on to Vancouver by boat. Juneau and Skagway, Alaska were visited before hoarding a log to the Yukon.

The returned via Seattle, and toured Washington and Oregon.

The boys on the trip were Jerry Jassy, Jr., Ward Kuhn, Jerry Murphy of Birmingham, Robert Brochery, William Kuhn, Bill Robertson, Tom White of Detroit and Brett Sutton of Livonia.

Jerry Pavlus, now 16 years old, took the same trip with a group led by Kuhn five years ago.

The William Plumbs of Butterat Hill Drive are spending the week on Lake Charleux with their daughter and son-in-law, Professor and Mrs. W. Bede Mitchell of Battle Creek. Mitchell is an English professor at Kellogg Community College, Battle Creek.

Racine, Wis. was the vacation destination of the Al Footes and children, Nancy, Tom, and Linda. of Townhill Drive. During their three-week-stay they visited Mrs. Footes mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Bester, and other relatives.

The Lynn Hudlers of Butterat Hill Drive began their two-week vacation at a Hudler family reunion in Attica, Ind. They then traveled to New Jersey to visit friends in Abury Park, toured points of historical interest and also made a stop at Zynobka Lake where they visited former Birmingham neighbors, the C. F. Bundys.
