

Pretty Lake Holiday Lives Up to Memories

LATHRUP — Reminiscing some time ago, Councilman John Kohl thought it would be a good idea to re-visit a lake resort he had enjoyed as a boy — so the Kohls headed down to Pretty Lake, in northeast Indiana, for a week at a cottage.

Believe it or not, the scene had remained true to memory — even to the 87-step high slide which Kohl promptly climbed and even more promptly descended into the water—followed of course by the children.

The six youngsters and two little guests of their daughters made it a happy ten-some for the Kohls at the cottage.

As far as little Marcia Kohl is concerned, the fun was topped on her return when Daddy took the gang out for dinner to celebrate her birthday which fell two days later on Aug. 7. Marcia, now a big five year old, was all eyes as the waitress paraded in with her birthday cake.

Bride-to-be Judith Anderson, daughter of the Richard H. Andersons of San Quentin, has had a busy round of parties in advance of her wedding Aug. 26, she will marry John Baldwin of Southfield.

Mrs. Charles Pollard of Lathrup and Mrs. J. L. O'Loughlin of Southfield were co-hostesses at a linen shower for Judith and Joan Milowski entertained a number of bridesmaids and friends at a personal shower in her Dearborn home. Thirty guests attended each of these parties.

Next comes an event honoring the wedding couple at the home of Mrs. George Metelski of Birmingham. Twenty couples will attend the evening party Saturday.

The rehearsal dinner will be held the 21st at the home of the groom's parents and maid-of-honor Joan

Anderson will host the spinster party Friday.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin will make their home on Cambridge in Lathrup.

Judith's parents, by the way, took a breather for five days at Mackinac Island, returning just in time to continue the busy schedule preceding their daughter's wedding.

Welcome signs of a stay-at-home dotted the home of Mrs. E. D. Mansfield as she and co-hostess Mrs. Carl Anderson greeted some 15 guests at a morning coffee recently honoring new neighbor Mrs. O. A. Bush. The group are all residents of San Quentin Avenue.

Mrs. Bush, incidentally, should be something of an expert on raising twins as she and her husband are the proud parents of two sets. Billy and Becky are 7 years old.

Sue and Cindy are 6. Big sister is Nancy, 9, and little brother is Jimmy, 2.

The Bush family moved from Royal Oak in late June. He is an electrical engineer for Westinghouse and he and his wife enjoy golfing, fishing and a good bridge game.

Mr. and Mrs. William K. Burton Jr. spent a week of their fortnight-holiday cruising the waterways around Indian River and Mullet Lake in their motorboat, "Pikito." They headquartered at the Columbus Beach Club during the first half of their vacation and spent the second week at Birch Lodge on Higgins Lake.

Local Couple Return From European Tour

"We wouldn't have missed any part of it," said Mrs. John Bryan, speaking of the four-week trip to Europe made by she and her husband. Taking a moment from unpacking—we caught her on the heels of their return, Aug. 8—she said they were impressed with the beauty and sparkling cleanliness of the countries they visited.

Purpose of the trip: Dr. Bryan read a paper at the International Diabetes Federation meeting in Geneva, Switzerland. Following the five-day meeting, the couple toured the rest of Switzerland, plus Austria, Germany, Denmark, Holland, Belgium and France, in a car purchased while they were abroad.

Another highlight was a reunion between the doctor and a colleague who studied at Henry Ford Hospital. Dr. Bryan also visited hospitals, clinics and specialists in his field at Hamburg, Germany.

The George Cummings are planning a gala party for old friends on Aug. 26. Some 32 guests have been invited to the party which promises a South Seas supper, island nectar and torchlight dancing.

Mrs. Cummings, with her hair for the decorative, will contrive hanging vines and flowers, palm trees and other appropriate trimmings.

Under the able emceeing of B'Wana Don Hunt, Cranbrook Country Club's Hawaiian Luau Saturday was a splashing success.

Four of the five lifeguards contributed to the festivities with some comic diving. The quartet are Mike Beardon of Walnut Lake, Jim Elliott of Birmingham, Carl Bartelch of Southfield and Paul Karns of Warren.

Fifth lifeguard, Sally McClanahan of Birmingham, performed a hula dance as did many of the
