

Young Gals Can Key Hairdo to Personality

Whether your aspirations for the school year are class president or class vamp, valedictorian or drum majorette, you can choose a hairdo to match.

Fifteen new fall hairdos were created by top New York hair stylists to suit the personality of every back-to-school girl.

Try several of the following to see which ones were meant for you—the life you lead, your personality, your features.

CLASS PRESIDENT: A gently teased top with wispy side bangs teamed with crisply turned-up ends make a neat, feminine hairdo. Especially good balance for bold features.

Yearbook Editor: An efficient pixie-do with a flutter of bangs to accent big wide-apart eyes is most likely to succeed with a slight natural curl.

From Queen: A page boy brought buoyantly up to date and poufy gives a soft serene look to a high-browed beauty. Good for medium-weight long hair.

Student Council President: An easy-to-keep style that's high and rounded, wide at the side, flatters an oblong face.

Valedictorian: An ear-tip page boy that's untapered in back plus parted bangs do the nicest things for a long face.

Drum Majorette: For pretty sports who love long hair, try this bouffant page boy caught neatly back in a bow.

Class Vamp: Pointy bangs accent big eyes, while head-hugging lines gentle a square face.

Class Day Chairman: Put contact lenses out of style with a side-swept, turned up hairdo which, because of its lack of clutter, is especially suited to girls who wear glasses.
