

Birmingham Teacher Marries Edward Pryor

Saint Columban Church in Birmingham was the setting Aug. 5 for the marriage of Claire Elaine Ellman and Edward T. Pryor. The Rev. Robert T. Palmer, of Parham, Mich., officiated at the ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Milbert A. Ellman of Berkley and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pryor of Okemos, Mich.

THE BRIDE was graduated from Michigan State University with a BA degree. She has taught first grade in Birmingham school system for the past two years.

Claire wore a gown of ivory coronation tulle in princess style covered with almost lace. A scalloped portrait neckline frosted with seed pearls and iridescent pallides and brief sleeves formed the bodice.

SHE WORE her sister's veil of French illusion. The veil was caught by a tiara of pearls and crystals. She carried a white leather-bound New Testament with white crests and stephanotis.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Norman Brockmeyer, was matron of honor. Jane Ellman, another sister, and Margaret Jeanne Wilmet, a cousin, were bridesmaids. Attendees were
