

Harlan Parents, Pupils Honor Edwin Crandells

NORTH ADAMS.—Edwin Crandell, principal of the Harlan Elementary School, and Mrs. Crandell were the honored guests at a farewell reception held at the school last Sunday afternoon. More than 150 parents and children were present to congratulate their departing principal who has accepted a position as director of curriculum of the Oak Park School System.

Hostesses during the afternoon were Mrs. Glick Barbosa, Mrs. Robert Lyons and Mrs. Douglas Brown. Also present were PTA presidents and past presidents, Mr. and Mrs. William Gordon, Mr. and Mrs. William Lyman and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Metzler.

Robert L. McBride took over the principal's duties at Harlan on Aug. 1. He has been an elementary principal in the Farmington Public Schools since 1957.

McBride is married and the father of a son and two daughters. He and his family reside in Livonia.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Shaw of Meadowlane entertained at an open house in celebration of their 25th wedding anniversary last Saturday afternoon.

and Mrs. Teed Marks of Orchard Hill Drive.

Beth Mahan, 16-year-old daughter of the John Mahans of Burnley Drive, began teaching the neighborhood song by the fine arts of ballet in June. As time went on the project snow-balled into three separate classes of eager youngsters that met weekly in the Mahan family room. It was a busy summer for both who had five years of ballet herself.

On Friday evening a recital "Dancing in the Dark" conducted by Beth and her assistant, Nancy Nash of Burnley Drive, was presented to more than 30 parents on the Mahan patio. Balletinas performing during the evening were Debby and Cindy Hance, Joanne Nash, Elise Malstrom, Carolyn Fisher, Kathy and Mary Ann Hamby, Gale Mahan, Jane Robertson.

The Clyde Morgan and children, Jim and Lisa, of Rouge Circle Drive, traveled through the Upper Peninsula on their recent vacation. Among the trip's highlights were a day on Mackinac Island and stops at Mackinaw State and Keweenaw State Parks and Miners Canteen.

The Upper Peninsula was the vacation playground this year for the Glick Barbass and children, Sandra, Rommie and Nancy, of Beech Road.

The Owen Millers of Hylane Drive spent their two weeks vacationing at Watsons Terrace Beach near Charlevoix. Joining them were their son and daughter-in-law, the Robert Millers and children, Joanne and Nancy, of Ferndale.

The William Franks of Beech Road have been entertaining friends at a series of summer parties. Invited to the first of the dinner parties were Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Chapin, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gow, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Strauss, and Mrs. Macklin Hannan of Birmingham.

Houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. Willis B. Sargent of E. Lansing, were with the Franks on a recent weekend. Mrs. Sargent was the honored guest at a luncheon given by Mrs. Franks during her stay. Among the 12 attending were Birmingham residents, Mrs. Robert Daily, Mrs. Carroll Chapin, Mrs. Elsie and Mrs. Harold Bush of Kalamazoo, will be married at a candlelight ceremony at the First Baptist Church in Birmingham on Saturday.

The rehearsal dinner will take place at the Kingsley Inn on Friday evening. Those in the bridal party attending will be Mr. and Mrs. Gleen Glick of Pontiac, Miss Joanne Schmidt of Eastover Road was honored at a kitchen shower at the Hickory Heights Drive home of Mrs. William Hazer last Saturday afternoon. Co-hosting the shower with Mrs. Hazer was Mrs. Stepher Lazarashak of Rutland Drive. Present were North Adams friends and neighbors.

Miss Schmidt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schmidt of Eastover Road, and her fiancé, Ronald Bush, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bush of Kalamazoo, will be married at a candlelight ceremony at the First Baptist Church in Birmingham on Saturday.

The rehearsal dinner will take place at the Kingsley Inn on Friday evening. Those in the bridal party attending will be Mr. and Mrs. Gleen Glick of Pontiac, Miss Louise Agrusa of Troy, Miss Mary Jo Hawkins of Birmingham, Miss Betty Lou Knabusch of Monroe, Miss Maurea Schmidt of Cleveland, Ohio, Donald Lyon and Clayton Shumard of Birmingham, Larry Bush, brother of the groom-to-be and both sets of parents. Also attending will be Rev. Donald Burton of Kalamazoo, who will assist in the marriage ceremony.

The Robert Kloors of Lanegan Drive entertained at another of their summer swim and supper parties on Saturday evening. Swimming in the vein added to the fun as neighbors, the Frederick Eckhouts, the Charles Morans, the Alan Yates, the Charles Howsons, tried out the Kloors new tiled pool.

Miss Bemis Completes Dietetic Internship

Cathrine Bemis of Birmingham is one of nine young women who completed a dietetic internship at the University of Oklahoma Medical Center. She has accepted a position as a dietitian with Baylor Hospital, Dallas, Tex.

Miss Bemis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry P. Bemis of 1989 Groswick, was graduated from Purdue University. As an intern, she received one year of practical experience and advanced academic training in hospital and institutional dietetics.

Couple Exchanges Vows In Presbyterian Church

Trudy Tate and David Lee Childs were united in marriage Saturday evening at the First Presbyterian Church in Jackson. The double ring ceremony was performed in the presence of 200 guests by the Rev. James Martin.

Parents of the newlyweds are Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Tate of Jackson and Mr. and Mrs. Albert C. Childs of Westwood Drive, Birmingham.

THE BRIDE'S gown was silk, trimmed with pearls and designed with a portrait neckline and full skirt with chapel train. A tiara of pearls and crystal secured her fingerly veil of tulle. She carried white orchids with ivy and heather.

Mrs. Harry Marston served as honor attendant and bridesmaids were Mrs. H. W. Tate, Patricia Butler, Patricia Chamberlain, Mrs. James Dawson and Mrs. Robert Timm.

THE ATTENDANTS were attired in pastel shades of silk organza with chiffon overskirts and matching chiffon cummerbund. They carried bouquets of matching daisies.

Robert Timm stood as best man and ushers were George Pospal, Norman Stanton, Harry Marston, David DeBoer, Brian Connelly and
