Mr. and Mrs. D.A. Dinan Honeymoon in Bermuda

Recorded by her brother Charles R. Austerberry, Sally Louise Austerberry became the bride of Dennis Allen Dinan Aug. 12 at St. Hugo of the Hills Church. The 11 o'clock ceremony was performed by the Rev. Francis T. Stack. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Charles Rupert Austerberry of Detroit and the late Mr. Austerberry. Her husband is the son of Mr. John, Bloomfield Hills, and the late Mrs. Dinan.

MRS. DENNIS A. DINAN

THE BRIDES wore a gown of white peau de soie fashioned with a portrait neckline and cap sleeves of alencon lace. The fitted bodice with full skirt fell into a chapel train.

A shell cap of helicon lace secured her illusion veil which extended beyond the full length of her train. She carried a bouquet of Stephanotis and ivy.

Maid of honor was Gail Armstrong and bridesmaids were Sonia Kambostad, Jane Wert, Sally Sanford, Molly Martin and as junior bridesmaids were Marie Christina DeGreave and Linda Austerberry.

THE BRIDES attendants were gowned in dresses of white silk organza over taffeta featuring high scooped necklines, elbow length sleeves and fitted bodices with apple shaped skirts. They wore yellow bows with circular veils and carried cascades of yellow Fuji chrysanthemums.

Dr. John Thomas Dinan Jr., stood as best man. Ushers were David Lee Jr., Ronald S. Swanson, Roy B. Flemming, Jay Miller, Earl Austerberry, John MacManus, Frank J. Myra and John MacManus.

FOR HER daughter's wedding, Mrs. Austerberry wore a pale blue silk dress, a contrasting blue pill-box and pinned a spray of white Bouvardia to her purse.

Following the reception, the bride changed into a traveling costume of beige silk linen and wore accessories to start her wedding trip to Bermuda. The young couple will live in New York City.

UN-RESTRICTED

Furniture stores, generally, are limited in the scope of their selections. Mass production does not lend itself to a broad range of size variance or unique features. Average is the key, leading to a never-never land of average size, shape, and quality... Mass production for the unknown, un-asked, average masses. At my store and manufactory on Hamilton Street (behind Demery's) there is none of this. Certainly, you'll find something you like, but nothing there is meant to suit everyone. Since most of my merchandise is either hand-made to your order, or a product of some bygone age when there was no mass-production, my selection is limited only by your imagination. Visit me soon. In my displays, or in the carefully aged lumber in my workshop, you're bound to find something to your liking.
