

Better family living
Better school standards
Better government
Better recreation
Better youth opportunities

At the local level, how can a community's citizenry be properly and effectively informed so that its efforts and actions can be directed toward the maintenance and improvement of —

Question:

Fact:

A well informed citizenry is necessary to our nation's basic defenses against the dangers of despotism, apathy and a surrender of our freedom.

Fact:

At the local level (here, where your children grow up) it is likewise necessary for the individual citizen to be properly informed in order that our community welfare be safeguarded and properly maintained.