

Couple Feted at Open House

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer R. Jarrett of Troy were honored at a surprise anniversary party. They were married 25 years ago at St. Columba's Episcopal Church.

The party was given by the Jarretts' daughters, Mrs. Donald Killewald, Beverly and Barbara Jarrett, both at home. Among the 50 guests attending were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dittmer, who attended the couple 25 years ago.

FORMERLY of Royal Oak, the Jarretts moved to Troy 15 years ago. Mr. Jarrett has been employed by the United States Rubber Co. for 23 years, where he is a supervisor. He is a member of the Masonic Lodge of Clawson.

The buffet table was adorned with silver vases of white tujumums with the leaves sprayed silver and the wedding cake was done in hues of pink and silver.

Out of town guests came from Sandusky, Argyle and Litchfield.
