

College Women's Club Slates Holiday Events

The College Women's Club are in a whirl of holiday activities. On Dec. 15, the group will have its Christmas party and on Jan. 5 a Twelfth Night party is slated.

The group met recently and selected their new officers for the year. They are Mrs. Bogdan Baynert, president; Delma Loyer, 1st vice president; Mrs. Clarence Totte, 2nd vice president; Mrs. Kenneth Patton, 3rd vice president.

MRS. WILLIAM Innes, treasurer; Mrs. Ludwig Helborn, recording secretary; Margaret Neudeck, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Albert Ratsch, parliamentarian; Jane Shoemaker, publicity director; Margaret Angus, bulletin director; Dorothy Goodson, education director; Mrs. William Klenk, social service director.

Mrs. Windsor Davies, ways and means director; Muriel Ford, hospitality director; and Bertha Shaw, assistant activities director.

THE CHRISTMAS party will be held at the home of Mrs. Emil Daugh in Grose Pointe where Christmas carols will be sung and gifts exchanged in a gay atmosphere of tune and light.

The Bloomfield Hills home of Mrs. Elton Awrey on Covington Road will be the setting on Jan. 5 for the annual Twelfth Night party of the club where the members will glow and the members partake of traditional wassail and cake.
