Pythian Sisters Gather For 50th Anniversary

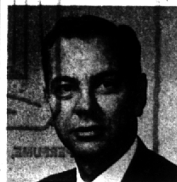

On Saturday evening, Birmingham Temple No. 24, Pythian Sisters, will celebrate their 50th Birthday Anniversary at the Birmingham Community House, opening with a 7 p.m. dinner. The Pythian Sister-Order is the ladies auxiliary of the Knight of Pythias Lodge.

Past Grand Chancellor, Ray Burrell of Ypsilanti, will be toastmaster for the evening. Honored guests will be Supreme Junior, Alberta Lynn, Grand Chief of Michigan, Irma Moore and Grand Chancellor, Bernard Bolton.

A MUSICAL program is to be presented by the Birmingham Medical Singers in costumes of the 18th century, under the direction of Mary Jane Walker.

The history of the Temple over the past 50 years, has been prepared and will be read by Past Chief Stella Edgar. Past Chief, Robertine Davidson, is general chairman with Helen Snure as co-chairman. Birmingham Temple was organized in 1911 with a charter membership of 28 Ladies and 27 Knights.

Dear Santa:
My big sister is writing this letter for me. I have been a good girl. Please bring me a telephone, a doll, dishes and a game. Don't forget to eat the cookies!

LYNN W. HUDLER

Bell Promotes Lynn Hudler

Michigan Bell Telephone Co. has promoted Lynn W. Hudler, 4125 Butternut Hill, Birmingham, to the new position of district sales manager—Mittown.

Hudler will be in charge of Michigan Bell's marketing operations in the Trinity, Townsend, Vinewood, and Wyandotte districts. Hudler recently returned from a special assignment with the American Telephone and Telegraph Co. in New York. He arranged for the presidential election campaign tours through Michigan.

HUDLER JOINED Michigan Bell as salesman in 1947 following seven years of military service. He has held sales supervisory positions since 1948, except for an other tour of active duty during the Korean conflict as a major in the Air Force. He is a member of Our Shepherd Lutheran Church and the Masonic Lodge. Hudler and his wife, Helen, have a son, Steven, 14.

The contemporary home of the Donald W. Hackers of Colony Hill Road, Franklin, is featured on the "Franklin Village Home Tour" Friday. The contour of the land was used to architectural advantage as the house became part of the hill.

Minister to Sing In Symphony Choir

The Rev. John H. Scott, minister of the First Presbyterian Church of Birmingham, will sing with the Bellaham Ruckham Symphony Choir in two performances at 8:30 tonight and Saturday in the Ford Auditorium. This is the second year that Rev. Scott, 551 Arzyle, Birmingham, has performed with the choir, the official choral group of the Detroit Symphony. A tenor, he and the other choir members will join the symphony, directed by Paul Paray in presentations of "Sampson and Delilah," by Saint Saens.
