Marc B. Anderson 'Adopts' Greek Boy

Mary Beiding Anderson, 760 Lone Pine, Bloomfield Hills, has financially "adopted" Savvas Anay-cros, an 11-year-old Greek boy, through Foster Parents Plan.

Savvas lives with his parents and sister Maroula in a village near Volos, in central Greece. His father went out on the fishing boats. He provided decently, if very simply, for his wife and children.

IN JANUARY of 1950, he contracted tuberculosis in the left knee and was admitted to a hospital in Athens for an operation. He suffers from ankylosis and cannot work regularly. His family have undergone endless hardship and privation since his illness. Mother of the bridegroom selected a silver brocade dress with pink roses. The bride's traveling costume was a gray wool suit. They are honeymooning in Florida and will live in Flint.
