Valley Woods Student Wins European Trip

VALLEY WOODS — Diane Janisse of Eastlady was the lucky girl who won a European trip first prize in the American Youth Hotel drawing last week at Ford Auditorium.

Although plans are not complete, the itinerary will include a 17-day trip over-seas by jet and a viewing of skiing activities, probably some in February.

Sixteen-year-old Diane attends Groves High School and is the daughter of Mrs. and Mrs. Norman A. Janisse who added to the excitement by celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary Nov. 24. A dinner party with friends was held to honor the couple at Rotunda Inn.

The next meeting of the Valley Woods Garden Club will be held Monday at the home of Mrs. Ted Hecox on Forest Lane. Hostesses will be Mrs. Lewis P. Henney, Mrs. Harry Kimbush, Mrs. Fred Loidan, Mrs. Donald Van Evers, Mrs. John Tesmar and Mrs. Fredrick Westbury.

Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Christensen with Paul, Ann-Marie and Mark spent the holidays at their cabin near Osage. The family likes to sit and needed the time to make everything snug and shipshape. With visions of a roaring fire, snow to enjoy later in the year, all hands kept busy chopping and stacking wood. When the Christensons left for home, the cabin was ready for the first snow fall and a group of eager skiers.

Things were a little crowded but lots of fun at the Bellevue home of Mr. and Mrs. John Kelber when their son Don celebrated his 20th birthday. Twenty-five Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity brothers of the newly-elected vice-president, and their dates, were on hand for dancing and a late supper. Mr. and Mrs. Kelber are active with the group and often chaperon dances and parties for them.

THE BEVERLYS—Many families had guests over the Thanksgiving weekend and among them were the Merle Spurrells of Inglewood Drive who entertained Mrs. Spurrell's sister and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Cupholm and Tom.

Spurrell's parents came in from Lansing, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Spurrrell, joining several other relatives for the family get-together, among them Mrs. Charles Williams with David and Diane and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kuhn and Richard Jr.

The Hugh G. Allertons spent a vacation in Miami with friends and drove home through the Great Smokies. They had the pleasure of seeing the mountains in their fall colors and after a stop at Gatlinburg went on to historic Gettysburg before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. McKittrick of Nixon Road are back from Endicott, N. Y., where they went to visit their son David R. McKittrick and his family. They stopped off at Buffalo, N. Y., for a day to see old friends.

The East Beverly Hills Garden Club will hold its "Candlelight Punch Party" today at the home of Mrs. Darrell Mould on Beverly Road. Featured will be holiday ideas on wrappings and decorations by Alfred Goldner of the Goldenrod and Walsh Landscaping Co. Hostesses will be Mrs. Victor Gerlach, Mrs. Lane Musto and Mrs. Edwin Meizinger.

The club is eliminating its gift exchange and will be active in horticultural therapy by making tray favors nine months of the year for the children at Beaumont Hospital.

The Ways and Means Chairmen Mrs. Jack Copeman assisted by Mrs. John Musto recently opened her home to several Christmas candles and other decorations. The proceeds will be used for the club's college scholarships.

The Ward Pecks of Locherbie added leaves to the dining room table for a family dinner when their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Caplan brought their children Bobby, Sue Ann, Billie and Glenn from Monroeville, Pa., to see their grandparents.

Another family friend and Mrs. Peck's mother, Mrs. Emma Hubbel were also there for turkey. The Caplans formerly lived on Verona Circle so they especially enjoyed looking up their old friends and neighbors.

After 20 years residence on Mayfair Lane the High Hemphills have sold their home and purchased a co-op in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., where they will spend six months of the year. They will be at home in their lovely new apartment on Starr Road in Royal Oak for the remaining months.

Mrs. Hemphill was feted at going-away parties during the week and at a luncheon given by Mrs. Howard Fitzgerald on Bedford Road. Both the Hemphills were guests at a pot luck dinner on Saturday at the Al Stevensons on Laber Road.

The new owners of the Hemphill home are Mr. and Mrs. David (Cann) and their two sons, David (Cann) and Jim (Cann) who attend the Detroit Institute of Technology and Jim a student at Barnum Junior High. The Canns previously lived on Washington Blvd. in Birmingham.

Back from a long weekend at Jackson, Michigan, is Mrs. Rolin Detwiler of Riverside. She spent the holidays with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William, O. Houston.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Jones of Locherbie hosted her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hoover and their two children, Mary Kay and David, when they arrived from their home in Parma Heights, Ohio. Hoover is an art instructor and, of course, made a visit to the new Birmingham Art Museum on Cranbrook Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Cassin spent a real old-fashioned holiday with 13 guests at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John McKeown of Detroit. The Cassin's granddaughter, Gail McKeown was home from St. Louis University and joined sister Mimi and the family for the festivities.

Mr. and Mrs. Warner Moore had their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James Kwader of Chapel Hill, N. C. with them for a short stay. Thanksgiving Day a short stay. Thanksgiving Day a short stay. Thanksgiving Day a short stay. Guests included Moore's mother and uncle, Mrs. Ethel Moore and Mr. Morris E. Moore of Toledo.

WEST BEVERLY — The West Beverly Sewing Group will meet Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Herbert Ashcraft, 18331 Devonshire. Co-hosts will be Mrs. Ed Brophy. Any women living in West Beverly who would like to join the group are welcome.

Square Dance Party Scheduled Saturday By Ringweavers

SOUTHFIELD — Intermediate level square dancers in the area are invited to attend the pre-Christmas square dance party Saturday at the Northbrook School, 12 Mile west of Southfield.

Sponsored by the Ringweavers Club, the dance will feature holiday calls and special events. Lyle Stokes will call from 8:30 to 11:30. Refreshments will be served. W. J. Kirchberg, 17556 Wiltshire, Lathrup, is president of the club.
